Seek Incorporation Of Subdivision Land For King City Village

Frank Davey, owner of the former Simpson property, adjacent to the village of King City and Mr. Ernest Smith, were a deputation at the village trustee meeting on Monday night, enquiring what steps are required to incorporate a piece of land into the village.

Mr. Davey has a subdivision development in mind, comprising about 13 acres which would require watermain installation. The site in question extends east of Dennison Avenue.

They were told a petition, signed by two-thirds of the village taxpayers and renters would be required before the present village limits could be extended.

The petition would then be considered by the township council, village trustees, and York County council. Information on the description of village limits is available at the township office, they were advised. It was pointed out that the present area of the village comprises the Fred Dew subdivision, the Kingsview subdivision and Heritage Park area.

Mr. Jack Hambly and Mrs. Mattie Jackson asked village trustees to have the registration of their Heritage Park subdivision put through. They have services in on half of their lots. Their road requires extra gravel fill and their water service is about completed in this section.

They were advised to have a township estimate on the cost of completing the roadway and to give council a cash deposit with authorization to have the work completed. Subject to the approval of the township engineer and council and village trustees, they should find no difficulty in completing their project through to registration of half of their plan.

New Grace Church Completed, Opening On Sunday, March 1

Newmarket has a new up to date and fully equipped church, Grace Church, on Botsford St. The official opening of the town's newest church is on March 1.

Rev. A. R. Yielding, pastor of the church says, "The congregation has been with us for a long time but the building is all new." Grace church congregation was the former congregation of the Gospel Tabernacle, Millard Ave.

Three years ago, Rev. Yielding came to the Millard Ave. congregation. The church had been going for 25 years with the usual ups and downs of a small church. After some months, he saw the need for a larger building if aggressive work was to be carried on.

The pastor and the congregation took their first step when the property was secured on Botsford St. for $2,000 and in a month the first sod was turned. A local builder, Wm. Curtis, was asked to assume responsibility of the building. With volunteer labor, as well as skilled crafts-

Board In Controversy, Council Confused On Receipt Of Tax Cheque

A cheque for payment of Warrendale school taxes was received at the last meeting of Newmarket town council. Council took no action on receipt of the cheque but turned it over to the town solicitor.

The Board of St. Faith's Lodge, good faith, is responsible for Warrendale, a girls' home on Millard Ave., Newmarket, sent the cheque recently to the town treasurer to cover the balance of Warrendale's 1952 tax and approximately half of what it expects to pay in 1953.

A letter by Mrs. Ward, chairman of the board, stated that the cheque was sent "to show our acceptance of the cheque will not change things," he said. Members on the school board feel that Warrendale should pay non-resident school fees for its students who are attending Newmarket public schools. The question of whether the school fees are paid or not, has not been settled.

"If the act gives the school board power to charge fees, we should not accept the cheque," said the mayor. "If the act does not give them that power, we should accept the cheque."

"I think we should accept the cheque," said Councillor Dales. "If it turns out that we owe Warrendale money after the settlement, we can pay them back," he said.

"But if the public school board finds it can charge fees, it will be sending Warrendale a bill at the same time," the mayor continued.

"We can't send the cheque back," Mr. Dales insisted. Mayor Vale said, "We might get ourselves into a very embarrassing situation by accepting the cheque when the school board is sending them their bill. I think we should pass the matter on to the solicitor." Mr. Dales agreed with a resolution to refer it to the town solicitor.

OPTI-MRS. SPONSOR MINSTREL SHOW, ADD $115 TO FUND

A minstrel show sponsored last week by the Newmarket Opti-Mrs. club raised $115 for the flood relief fund. A large crowd attended the performance Wednesday night by the Friendly Minstrels in the town hall.

The minstrel group from East York performed without charge for the relief fund. An unexpected surprise in the show was a special song by Jimmy Walker, Newmarket, a veteran minstrel of past Lions shows. Mr. Walker knew the director of the Friendly Minstrels, Ted Morris. The Newmarket Opti-Mrs. heard of the group through a radio announcement which revealed that the minstrels were performing for any fund raising program for flood relief. Net proceeds from the show were $115.85.

Ratepayers' Assoc. To Be Formed Shortly, To Call Public Meeting

A ratepayers' association is to be formed in Newmarket in the near future. Last Thursday evening, a number of ratepayers met in the auditorium at the fire hall building to discuss the formation of an association. Mentioned as a possible first project for a ratepayers' association was postal delivery service for Newmarket.

It was suggested that information could be gathered, necessary for postal service, if the service could be acquired for Newmarket. The property owners who attended the meeting showed enthusiasm for such an association. They felt that it could be a benefit to the town and a help to the town council.

John Chappell was chairman of the meeting. Mr. Chappell has had experience on a ratepayers' organization in the suburbs and stressed the importance of civic co-operation. Mrs. V. R. MacNaughton said that members of council could be given help and more confidence by the support of a group of ratepayers. Most of the discussion was centered around organizational work. A committee was set up to plan advertising and arrange a public meeting at a date in the near future when all ratepayers would be invited to attend.

"A ratepayers' association is no organization for individuals to 'grind their own axes', Mr. Chappell said. If that is the sole purpose of the association, it will not be successful," he said.

Here And There Around Town

One day last week some money was dropped on the Main St. Another shopper coming along, saw the money, picked it up and looked for the party who had lost it but there was no one in sight. Being honest, they suggested that the Era and Express take the money and ask anyone having lost it to call at the Era office to identify the cash and the circumstances of its disappearance.

If no one claims the money before next week, the finder suggested that it go to the Flood Relief fund, a suggestion we intend following.

A story came to light of a rescue from Holland River of a small boy, four year old Paul VanNippen, on Monday afternoon. His parents who are recent arrivals in Canada from Holland, moved to Holland Landing from Toronto on Feb. 1. The move might have been a very tragic one, but for the fact that some cubs and scouts were skating on the river at the Landing when the little fellow slipped into the water.

Seeing the boy in difficulties and hearing his calls for help, Bob Pearson, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pearson, rushed to Paul's rescue. He had brought the child almost to safety when the youngster slipped back into the water. Bob was joined by 10-year-old Chesley Stickwood and 12-year-old Harold Foster.

The three boys were able to bring Paul to safety and within a few minutes his father arrived to take him home. Paul's family live close to the river and the child had wandered down without being missed at home.

It was an exciting day for Bob Pearson. Not many boys can celebrate their birthday in so heroic a manner.

Fortunately the incident had a happy ending. There is a fast

RUNAWAYS RIDE FREIGHT TORONTO TO ZEPHYR

Two runaway boys set off a search of 45 miles of C.N.R. track, and frightened no one knows how many persons when they rode a freight train from Toronto to Zephyr last Friday.

David Lees, 11, and Sam Elliott, 13, Bolton Ave., Toronto, decided to run away. David was escaping from a spanking, promised by his father for misbehavior. Same went along for the ride. They jumped on the train at Riverdale station.

As the boys ran from car to car while the diesel freight sped north, passersby and motorists waved frantically at the train crew to stop.

"We thought they were waving at us, not because of us," Sam said. "So we waved back." At Thornhill, C. Meure saw the boys riding the coupling between two cars. He called the Ontario Provincial Police.

OPP cars were sent out to halt the freight. PC Norm Cowie, Vandorf detachment, was first to catch up with it.

"We saw the police before the train stopped," said David, "so we hid among some girders on one of the cars."

Police and trainmen couldn't find the boys. They feared the two had fallen off, and might be lying injured along the track. The train went on northward while a search of the C.N.R. line began.

Near Zephyr, train conductor Robert Ralph spotted the boys running along the top of a box car. He signalled the engineer and the train stopped at Zephyr.

"The conductor was nice to us," said Sam. "He just said he didn't know what to do with us and then he gave us each a bun to eat. The man in the station found a tin of sardines and some bread too."

Then the police arrived. "And where do you want to go now?" a constable asked them. "Well I guess we'll have to go home," said David. "But we're sure going to catch it."

NAME WALTER EVES HONORARY PATRON OF Y.C. HOSPITAL

In recognition of his years of service to York County hospital since its origin, Walter Eves was made an honorary patron of the hospital at the annual meeting of the board last night. Mr. Eves was a member of the original board and has served on the hospital board since that time being its president during the difficult and trying war years.

Attention was called to the public service rendered the community by Mr. Eves. Kenneth Silver, president of the hospital board, said that few men have been able to serve the public for such a length of time as had Mr. Eves. Walter Eves was a public school trustee, member of council, reeve and mayor during many years of civic service.

LICENCE SUSPENDED
Joseph Caradonna, 9 Prospect St. was convicted in magistrate's court on Tuesday of operating his car while his licence was under suspension. His licence had been suspended on a charge of careless driving. Mr. Caradonna was fined $75 and the car was impounded for 90 days. Constable Arnold Leeder was investigating the case.

To Be On Toscanini Program Postpone Concert Here

The concert featuring Lois Marshall, Toronto soprano, which was scheduled for Friday night at Newmarket high school auditorium has been postponed. Miss Marshall will sing for the Canadian Concert Association of New-

The reason Miss Marshall will not be appearing in Newmarket tomorrow night is that she was chosen by Arturo Toscanini to perform the Missa Solemnis when he conducts the N.B.C. Symphony Orchestra at Carnegie Hall tomorrow night.

Miss Marshall has had to change many of her other concert dates. Rather than plan for a substitute artist, the Newmarket association decided to make arrangements for her to sing on March 17.

Less than three months ago, Miss Marshall won the acclaim of New York critics for her Town Hall debut in connection with her winning of the Naumburg Award. Toscanini's attention was drawn to this concert and prompted his sending for Miss Marshall to audition for him two weeks ago. Meanwhile her time has been taken up with rehearsal schedules.

The March 17 concert will be the last of the season for the Newmarket association. Renewal of memberships for next season will be taken at the March 17 concert. The campaign for new memberships will start on March 31, ending Saturday, March 30.

We published part of a page in the Dutch language two weeks ago and asked for comments about continuing a regular Dutch column. Comments for and against the column have been about equal and the comments against, carried in interesting, worthwhile opinions which we had not heard before.

The comments were all from Dutch Canadians. The ones who favored a Dutch language did so because it was like having "a touch of home in the local newspaper." They thought it would be "nice" but we cannot say that they thought it would be "wonderful."

The Dutch Canadians who argued against a language column were more convincing and that is why we are not planning to continue the column.

One Dutch Canadian who lives near Newmarket and who served in the last war was emphatic. "It is a bad thing to do," he said. Although we were not speaking to this man, he left word with our office that he was strongly opposed to the idea. In no uncertain terms he said "Everyone should speak English. You are not doing any good; you are encouraging people not to learn English."

Another Dutch Canadian said, "You should not do this. It is not good for the country and it is not good for the Dutch people. It will not help recent immigrants who come to this country to be citizens."

"Everyone should be made to speak English. You are not helping the Dutch people in any way to print news in the Dutch language," he said.

It was this last statement which convinced us not to publish the language column. We do not say that we are convinced it would be harmful to them. Our first motive was to provide something which our Dutch Canadian citizens would like. It was purely a desire to be of service to part of the community.

We do see that the arguments of our friends carry some weight. If there is a substantial opinion that our column would not be helping some of the Dutch Canadian residents, we are not going to do anything in opposition to that opinion.

Another couple told us that they had lived in a Dutch speaking community for their first year in Canada. "The best thing we did was to move away because that first year was wasted. We learned little English in the first year and we feel that learning the language is essential to success. Since we have been circulating in an English speaking community, we have found life in Canada much easier. We are more familiar and happier with the ways of the country."

We are now convinced. On our Aurora page, an error appeared recently about a service club's contribution to a good cause in that town. The heading on the story stated, in error, that the club had given $990. The club had actually given $900, toward recreation. These errors inflict more pain on a newspaper staff than on the readers, we often feel.

Fortunately, the correct amount was mentioned a number of times in the context of the story.

We were happy to find that that we are not the only ones who have such troubles. We saw an article in a Toronto paper with a heading which stated "Soroptimists Vote $300 for Flood Aid."

The item stated: "At the February meeting of the Soroptimist club of Toronto, a donation of $250 was voted to send to the National Union of Netherlands Soroptimist clubs and $250 to the Federation of Soroptimists of Great Britain and Ireland for flood relief in these countries."

We wonder how much the Soroptimists did give.

Interests of Junior Farmers of Ontario are diverse enough to include dramatic presentations, fashion shows, debates, bazaars, sports and lectures in addition to their chosen lifetime work of farming. The organization has gathered together all the individual enterprises of local groups and directed them into various channels. One of the best examples of Junior Farmer organization is at Bolton, Ont., where funds raised by the Junior Farmers built a $30,000 fair ground hall. Gordon Mason, of Bolton, shown with his prize-winning calf, above, is one of the 11,000 members of the JFO who have found it an organization valuable for both work and recreation.

RATEPAYERS' ASSOCIATION

It would appear that more people in Newmarket are becoming community-conscious. It is to be hoped that the trend is here to stay, that comment on this will not be described as wishful thinking. There are promising indications that a chamber of commerce, or board of trade, will be formed in the near future. And last Thursday evening there were the beginnings of a Newmarket ratepayers' association.

A small gathering of citizens held general discussions in the fire hall auditorium at the meeting Thursday night and agreed on a plan to form a ratepayers' association. It was encouraging to see that the group was anxious for community co-operation, that its prime motive was not to "do battle" with the town council or other bodies on isolated issues.

As one member of the audience rose to describe a grievance against the town council which formulated in his mind in the year 1928, the chairman took a small file from his vest pocket and said that the "grinding of personal axes" could be done elsewhere. The ratepayer with the old grievance smiled good naturedly. While the incident seemed irrelevant, it set the tone for the meeting of ratepayers.

Those who had personal grievances had good reasons for taking an active interest in starting the association. Other public spirited citizens were merely interested in forming a worthwhile association. It is seen that the success of the association will depend on a good civic spirit, a desire for co-operation.

A good ratepayers' association could be of great assistance to an elected body. Town council would hear opinions on issues from a large block of electors, could act with more confidence knowing that it had strong support or that it was being criticized. Council has been advised on occasions by its own members that the best policy is to allow public opinion to force an action rather than take the initiative itself. If that is the best policy for council, then a ratepayers' association is needed in Newmarket.

BOY SCOUT, GIRL GUIDE WEEK

(Contributed by H. T. Jaques)

The significance of Boy Scout and Girl Guide week is uppermost in the minds of millions of boys and girls and older people throughout the world who are acquainted in any way with Scouts and Guides.

Sunday, February 22, was the anniversary of the birthday of both Lord and Lady Baden Powell, the Founders of these two movements and this week is set aside every year for special observance in their honor by these now world-wide organizations. Special parades and other meetings are planned by all groups around this time and the public is invited to show interest and support by financial donations or other willingness to take an active part in the work.

The Boy Scout movement is less than 50 years old and yet it has spread throughout the world and millions of boys and young men of all colors and creeds have passed through its training program for better citizenship and many have remained as leaders. Despite the ravages of two world wars which riddled the ranks of leaders, there are today over five million Boy Scouts in the free world.

To explain the reason for the phenomenal growth of this volunteer movement, one needs but to quote its founder and thereby reveal some of the wisdom on which this whole organization is based: "In our training of the boy, we develop the individual in both spirit and efficiency, to be an effective player in his national team of citizenship. Acting on the same principle in the case of a nation, we should try to develop the right spirit and efficiency for helping that nation to work effectively in the team of nations. If each, then, plays in its place, and "plays the game", there will be greater prosperity and happiness throughout the world; there will be brought about at last that condition which has so long been looked for — of peace and goodwill among men."

This is the program that is taught in its many phases at the Scout Hall in Newmarket five nights a week. The Brownies, Guides, Cubs and Scouts who meet there with their leaders are endeavoring to do their best to keep the promises they have made and by so doing, they discover happiness and contentment in doing their duty to God and the Queen, obeying their laws and helping others.

AN INDUSTRIAL FUTURE?

Speculation about the attitudes of industry toward a metropolitan area around Toronto may reveal a bright future for the northern municipalities. Municipal representatives in suburban municipalities near Toronto have been talking about industries moving out of the area, should a metropolitan area be formed. They foresee assessment increases as much as 400 percent as industries' share in the financing of a metropolitan system.

Industry is concentrated in five suburban municipalities. Almost 80 percent is in Etobicoke, Scarborough, New Toronto, Leaside and North York. For the 13 municipalities surrounding Toronto, an assessment of $2,300,000,000 is foreseen, an increase of at least $750,000,000 over the present assessment total. Industry is expected to bear the brunt of the assessment increase.

Whether taxation burdens will force many existing industries to move out of the metropolitan area or not, is a question. New industries, however, would be less likely to build new plants in a heavily assessed area and it is possible that they would look farther north in the county for industrial sites. And it is likely that they would look farther than the northern borders of a new metropolitan area.

No one has yet predicted a boom for the northern part of York County but the outlook, in the light of higher assessments in the south, would favor future establishment of industries. There are already rumors of industrial locations around the east side of Lake Simcoe. It is interesting to speculate on Newmarket's future, the possibilities of it becoming a seat of county government, a centre of a growing population.

The possibilities of industries wanting to locate within the corporate limits of the town of Newmarket are remote. There are only a few places where factories could be built and there is practically no room for new heavy industry. Any industrial development would be outside of Newmarket.

It would seem that some long range planning would not be out of the question for Newmarket. Should the metropolitan area formation promise a boom for the north, Newmarket would do well to be prepared in advance. There has been little discussion about Newmarket's relation to metropolitan plans at the regular meetings of town council although there may well be planning done in committee work. A good discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of annexing new areas beyond the town limits might reveal more information about the future possibilities of the town.

NO SERVICE TO DEMOCRACY

We too are alarmed as is the Globe and Mail, which criticized Dr. Edward Hall, president of the University of Western Ontario for applauding the students at that sent of learning who broke up Dr. Hewlett Johnson's meeting in London last Monday. Dr. Johnson, who has been given the unkind nickname of the "Red Dean of Canterbury" was prevented from making a speech when students used stink bombs, cowbells and balloons in the assembly hall.

According to President Hall, "He got what was coming to him". Dr. Hall went on to say: "Maybe this will do something to belie people's feelings who say that Canadian universities are riddled with Communist supporters."

Whatever the people's feelings may be, we fail to see that their impressions of the universities will be improved by this action. It has always been with a sense of democratic pride that many looked upon the university as being one place where there was complete freedom of thought and speech. Apparently things have changed at Western.

We have no use for persons who say "He shouldn't be allowed into the country" or "Why don't they send him to Russia?" Dr. Johnson is an old man who has spent his life as a church leader. He has arrived at certain conclusions which do not go along with public opinion here but we have always prided ourselves in the fact that anyone can speak his mind in this country.

Unfortunately, the trend in the western hemisphere is to suppress speakers or writers who do not coincide with our way of life. In Britain, persons of all political colors have always been permitted to speak anywhere, street corners, parks or assembly halls, and they have done little damage. The Globe and Mail editorial states, "The students of London have done democracy no service." We agree.

The campaign, conducted by the Ontario Society for Crippled Children, runs from March 5 until April 5, and its objective is $475,000. The Newmarket Lions club is conducting the campaign in the Newmarket district.

The Top Six Inches by "Dairy Farmer"

Last week district number seven of the Toronto Milk Producers, by way of an experiment, invited some representatives of the Milk Drivers' Union to address their meeting. They came and a well attended meeting heard some interesting facts and acquired some interesting impressions.

First, we were impressed by the single-minded devotion and definite behavior of these men. They knew what they were after and in the long history of negotiations and organizations and dealings with opposing and often hostile forces, they have learned to stick with their decisions and not show any signs that they could be wrong. There are no dealings and their is no hint that a compromise might suit them.

Secondly, they feel just as the milk producers feel and they say so: that the greatest trouble in the milk business is the way milk is distributed and that by amalgamating some of the smaller dairies, they would save plant equipment and do away with overlapping. They feel that even municipal distribution might be better than what we have now. In this respect, they are very much like producers; we think that distribution could be streamlined too.

Finally, they are opposed (and when union says opposed it means just that), to any curtailment of deliveries and insist that a curtailment of deliveries means less take-home pay for them. Consumption goes down and then they have to have more money.

It is this curtailed delivery business right now that is the crux of their fight with the dairies. They say that when the housewife doesn't see the milk, she won't buy it and she won't carry it home from the store.

We asked them some questions. Their answers indicated how they felt about most issues which face us. They didn't make any secret of the fact that they thought we were stupid to have a two-price structure and while they didn't say so to us, at least they implied that the two-price arrangement makes fools of us.

So there. Oh yes; there was also an invitation to sit down with their high command to thrash out our problems, something that is worth remembering.

There you are. It was very educational. We are wondering to what extent could we profit from this experience. The first thing which comes to our mind is that our directors could learn something about their attitude of firmness and decision. Often we are too inclined to show our cards before the other side pays to see them. The horse trading attitude which says we want a dollar but we will settle for 30 cents

Secondly, we should see if getting together with labor wouldn't create a better public opinion when it comes to a possible increase in the price of milk. Look at it this way. We have a pie and it has to be cut three ways. If one party isn't satisfied, and the pie has to be recut, somebody has to get less, and so far it has been the producer who has to take the beating.

Supposing that we got together with them and pointed out our side of the question and then went to the dairies. Having recut the pie, or baked a bigger one, which means an increase in price, we all would put a half page ad. in all the daily papers to explain our position. I am sure we could avoid the bad publicity which always follows any change in the price of milk.

They claim there are 60,000 union wage earners. They represent almost half of the population of the city. If one of their fellow unions publicly agree that an increase is necessary, it would be to the good of all.

We feel that the producers' organizations should try to reach some agreement with the labor union movement instead of calling them names.

CAPTAIN'S CABIN IS OPERATING ROOM

The captain's cabin in HMCS Athabaskan was turned into a hospital room when a South Korean sailor, wounded in a raid on the Communist-held mainland, was taken on board the Canadian destroyer for medical treatment. The South Korean, suffering from a bullet wound in the abdomen, here he is shown receiving a transfusion preparatory to an operation. Left to right, around the wounded man, are: Surg. Lieut. R. B. Irwin, Victoria, B.C., medical officer of the Athabaskan; captain of the fleet E. G. B. Fyfe, Ottawa; CPO William Murray, Victoria; and AB James Wall of St. John's, Nfld.

The state is the servant, not the master, of the people; the state is their guarantee against infringement on their rights, their agent in international and national issues; it is not the function of the state to assume the direction of those activities which rest on individual choice.

Our readers write

Letters to the editor are always welcome but the names of the writers must be known to the editor.

The Editor: After reading over that letter of Ivan Day's, I know why our farming population has reduced itself to some 15 percent of the Ontario people. It's still going down and no one knows where it will end up.

It's strange how little city and town people know of the incessant work and great uncertainty of farm operations. They don't care actually, so long as they get cheap food and even today food is comparatively cheap.

A point which (in spite of all the lessons of history), is being neglected today, just as in other decadent civilizations, is that exploitation of the farmer means soil depletion and finally collapse. The city writers dismiss this with a shrug, relying on science. However strong science is; there comes a final end to all substitutes and then comes the decay and fall. A prosperous, contented, farm strata means that city life can also prosper.

I am not a dairy man. I cannot see that infernal seven-day grind, plus a huge capital investment which doesn't pay bank interest. However, my neighbors are and I often feel sorry for them, tied hand and foot, seven days a week, producing cheap food for ungrateful partial workers. It is strange that Mr. Day finds the substitute, (which is really a glorified, hydrogenated shortening), superior to butter. I should surmise that his sense of taste is defective. My dog Pete can differentiate between the true and the false and I am sure he isn't a connoisseur.

The two letters mentioned were probably written by older people who do not realize how inflation has changed the whole economic set-up. The ways of 30 years ago have very little value today. Thirty years ago, these three places would produce 60 lbs. butter a week. Continual cropping, at a very small margin used for topsoil and today they are fit only for grazing or trees. This condition is prevalent all over Eastern Canada, with depleted soil, caused by poor prices, a vicious circle.

I may say that I protested to the Herald about those two letters; they are so much out of the times. Canada cannot possibly hope to produce butter in competition with the warmer countries.

Our cattle are stable fed when theirs are still on grass. It's strange how few people realize also the extent to which Denmark has subsidized butter and bacon.

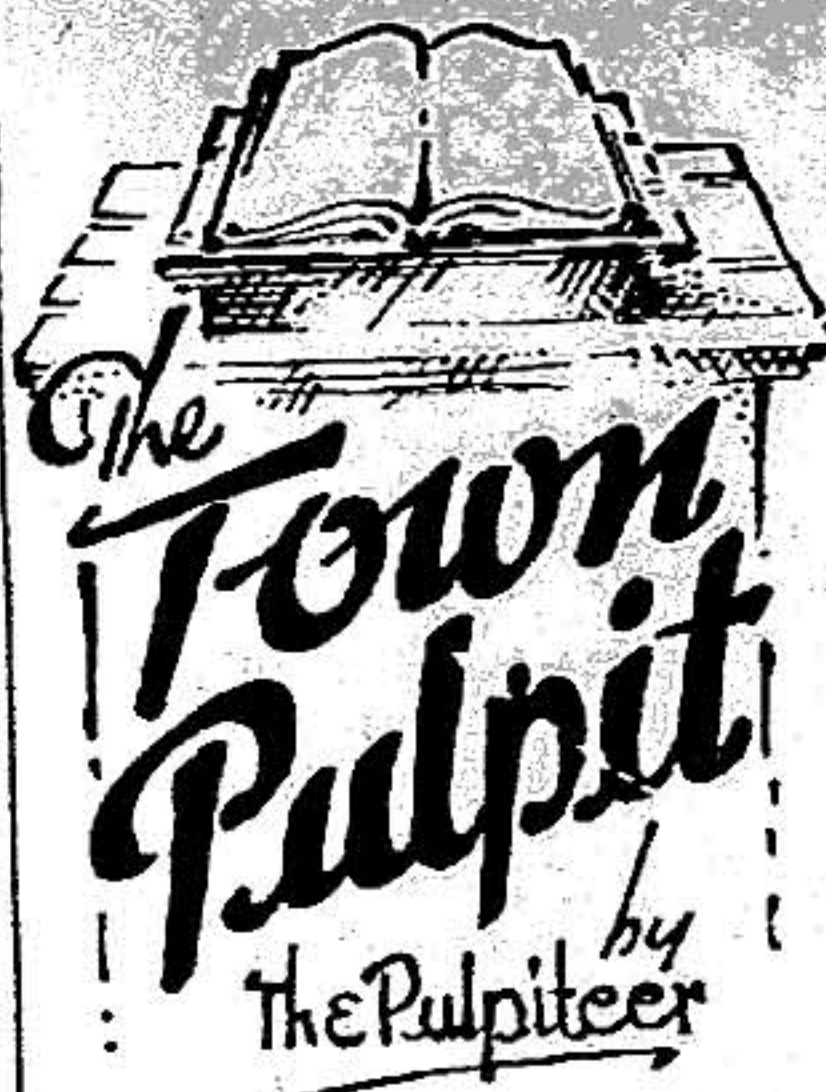

Machinery and labor, all sent sky high by the cities, is the reason for the rise in food prices. One point I will concede, that the Canadian farmer lacks initiative. I will guarantee that out of the hundreds who read Mr. Day's attack, should you get 10 replies, you will be doing well.

Hester Pardee, Sister Of Mrs. Sherman, 101, Dies at Island Grove

The sudden death of Mrs. Hester Pardee, widow of William Pardee, at her Island Grove home on Friday, Feb. 20, came as a shock to her friends and relatives.

Mrs. Pardee, who drove a car until the day she died, felt reasonably well and it was a sudden seizure which took her life. She was a half-sister to Mrs. Margaret Sherman, 101, Island Grove, and leaves to mourn her three daughters, Gladys (Mrs. Hunt), Marie (Mrs. Paxton), Norwood; and Vilda (Mrs. Richardson), Chicago. Her only son, Stanley Brooks, predeceased her. The funeral service was held on Tuesday, Feb. 24, and interment was in Briar Hill cemetery, Sutton.

The other day I read a tract that I rather enjoyed. It is entitled "The Incomparable Christ". It is interesting reading and seems so true. Here it is:

He put on humanity that we might put on divinity. He became the Son of Man that we might become the sons of God. He came from Heaven where the rivers never freeze, winds never blow, frosts never chill the air, flowers never fade and no one is ever sick. There are no undertakers and no graveyards, for no one ever dies; no one is ever buried.

He was born contrary to the laws of nature, lived in poverty, reared in obscurity; only once He crossed the boundaries of the land. He had no wealth nor influence and had neither training or education. His relatives were inconspicuous and unimportant.

In infancy He startled a king; in boyhood He puzzled the lawyers; in manhood He ruled the course of nature. He walked upon the billows and hushed the waves to sleep. He healed the multitudes without medicine and made no charge for His services. He never wrote a book yet not all the libraries in the country could hold the books written about Him. He never wrote a song, yet He furnished the theme of more songs than all song writers combined.

He never founded a college, yet all the schools together could not boast of more students than He has. He never practised medicine and yet He healed more broken hearts than the doctors' broken bodies.

He never marshalled an army, drafted a soldier, nor fired a gun, yet no leader ever had more volunteers. He is the Star of Astronomy, the Rock of Geology, the Lion and the Lamb of Zoology, the Harmonizer of all discords and the Healer of all diseases. Great men have come and gone, yet He lives on.

Death could not destroy Him; the grave could not hold Him. He was poor, yet made many rich. He was rich yet for our sakes, became poor. He slept in another's manger, cruised in another's boat, rode another's beats and was buried in another's tomb. All failed but He, never. He has become my Saviour.

See Short 'Exposure' In Warrendale Group Most Helpful To Girl

Warrendale, a specialized home for girls recently established at the former home of Aubrey Davis, Newmarket, has its policy set by the Board of St. Faith's lodge, a board of 22 women. The board sees Warrendale as an expensive social agency but stresses that only by having a skilled staff, a limited clientele and an attractive setting, can it function effectively.

A comparatively short "exposure" to Warrendale may help an unhappy and disturbed girl in a way that care under another agency may not do, the board feels.

The Board of St. Faith's lodge was organized in 1916 by a group of Anglicans to give residential care to young girls. It started in a small rented house on Beverley St., Toronto; later a large house at 242 Cottingham St. was purchased and used until 1950.

St. Faith's Lodge was incorporated under the laws of Ontario in 1942. In June, 1950, as house and grounds were no longer suitable, the lodge was closed temporarily until a more adequate property could be obtained. The Board looked at a number of places in the Toronto area but was unable to locate a building which fitted its requirements.

In the spring of 1952, after much deliberation and careful consideration, the Board decided that a smaller community could offer certain advantages lacking in a metropolitan centre. Accordingly the home of the late Mr. Aubrey Davis in Newmarket was purchased on May 15, 1952. The house was named "Warrendale" in memory of Mrs. H. D. Warren, a founder of St. Faith's and its president for over 30 years.

An Active Board
The Board of 22 women is an independent body responsible for the overall policy of Warrendale and for its finances. The Board operates through a series of committees, personnel, ad-

Burned Out Last Week, Now Have A Home With Gift of Furniture

The Jack Kellys of Roche's Point, fire victims of last week, are now in another home of their own and with their own furniture. Through the report of the fire and the family's pictures appearing in the Toronto Telegram, a reader, Mrs. A. Bowler, Toronto, kindly offered suitable furniture to the Kellys, which she had been accumulating for a summer home she hoped to have.

The offer was gratefully accepted and delivery of the furniture was made, free of charge.

through the kindness of Stacey Martin, operator of the Strathdee Transport.

Dr. Glen To Preach Sunday At St. Andrews' 119th Anniversary

While the first authentic record of a Presbyterian congregation in Newmarket dates back to 1813, St. Andrew's church reckons its origin from 1834 when Rev. Henry Gordon, Edinburgh, was called as its first minister. This coming Sunday the congregation will observe its 119th anniversary.

Rev. F. R. Meredith will be assisted at both services by Rev. J. S. Glen, M.A., B.D., Ph.D., as guest preacher. Dr. Glen, who served St. Andrew's of Aurora for some years, is now principal of Knox College, Toronto, to which position he was appointed from Glenview Presbyterian church. He will preach at both morning and evening services.

Mr. Terry Doane, popular baritone, Queensville, will be guest soloist at both services to augment the special music of the choir under the direction of Mrs. W. C. Andrew.

EDWARDS—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Lillian Edwards, who departed this life February 26, 1950.
Always remembered by husband,
daughter Ruth, Carman and granddaughter Ruby.

HALLIDAY—In loving memory of my mother, Selina Halliday, who passed away February 26, 1952.
Two dear bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no
guile,
Deep trust in God that all was right,
Her joy to make some other
bright,
If sick or suffering one she knew.
Some gentle act of love she'd do;
No thought of self, but of "the other".
I know He said, "Well done,
dear mother."
Sadly missed and never forgot-

sleep
Her memory we shall always keep
Sadly missed by son Bert, Enla and family.

MORNING—In loving memory
of a dear husband, Stanley (Tod)
Morning, who passed away
March 2, 1952.
Gone is the face I loved so dear,
Silent is the voice I loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who
once was here,
And who, though absent, is just
as dear.
Sadly missed and fondly remembered by his loving wife Viva.

SWEET—In loving memory of a

Gone but not forgotten.
Remembered by wife and family.

TOWNSLEY—In loving memory of a dear husband, father, and granddad, Charles Townsley, who passed away February 24, 1952.
Remembrance is a golden chain,
Death tries to break, but all in vain,
To have, to love, and then to part,
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy
days,
When we were all together.
Sadly missed and ever remembered by wife Alice and family and grandchildren.

WALTERS—In loving memory
of a dear mother who passed away March 1, 1950.
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all.
Lovingly remembered by daughter Lillian.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Alice Paxton

King City's oldest resident,
Mrs. Alice Paxton, in her 95th
year, passed away on Monday, Feb. 16. She was the last of her generation, having none of her children, not even a girlhood chum, who had lived to such an advanced age. Mrs. Paxton had been in failing health for a year, although her fine memory and hearing were keen until the last.
Unfortunately, her sight had given out a few years ago.

Mrs. Paxton was the daughter of James Stewart and Magdalene Rennie, Temperanceville, and was born, baptized and married in the same house there.
All but 20 years of her life was spent in King township. After her marriage to William Paxton, she and her husband lived at Orillia, but returned to Temperanceville. After his death 30 years ago, Mrs. Paxton made her home with her daughter, Mrs. E.
Milton Legge, with whom she
needlework was a source of great pleasure to her and during the last war she and Mrs. Legge knitted 100 pairs of soldiers'
socks. Mrs. Paxton had a host

Town League Tie Last Week

The Newmarket and District
hockey league regular season ended in a flurry of excitement
as the Town Regents and Vandort battled all out to a 5-all tie
last week.

That split in the points meant that Vandort retained their hold on second place. Mount Albert trounced Kettleby 7-1 in the early game to increase their first place margin. That Sutton duo of John Laroyd and Skip
Taylor were doing a rushing business with the scorers again.

They whipped Kettleby between them. Laroyd picked up four vital goals, Skip Taylor dug in for two while the other Mount goal fell to the educated shooting iron of Bruce Paisley. Ken Thoms on loan to the short staffed Terry-Hodgson men whipped in Bruce Rose's lay over-pass to ruin Bella Holder's shut-out.

Trailing 5-1 midway through the second period, the Regents
roared back in high gear as Cliff
Gunn, Ken Thoms, Normie
Legge and Ortie Thoms scored in that order to rate the Regents a tie. Normie Legge made it a two goal night by netting the Regents' first period counter
while Deb Cooper, Jack Smith and Jack Staley got into the act
in the assist column.

Ron Penke, Russ Forfar, Jim
Preston, Stan Pollard and Bill
Kingdon pegged Vandort tallies.
Biggest figure in the Vandort camp was Loring Doolittle. Besides playing a bang-up defensive game, Dewey came in for raves with a five assist night aiding in every Vandort goal.

IT'S A Woman's World

By CAROLINE ION

It doesn't seem possible that we have completed six years with the Era and Express. But, last week (never could remember anniversaries or special dates) we began our seventh year of associations with this newspaper. It won't be long before we'll be able to say with an appropriate quiver in our voice, "Say there, young fellow, I can remember back to when the airplanes were all propeller-driven. Yes, those were the days when people were considered daft if they claimed to have seen flying saucers; the 'good old days'."

We mention this belated anniversary, not so much to call attention to the passing years, but as an appropriate time to say thank you for the support and encouragement we have received during those years. We all live busy lives in the newspaper business where one deadline is barely met when work is begun on the next, and the days and weeks rush by in whirlwind fashion. We appreciate the assistance and co-operation we receive weekly from local residents. Sometimes we forget to say so at the time.

Because of such omissions we don't anticipate or expect thanks or praise from others. When it is forth-coming, particularly from busy individuals, it is that much more appreciated. Criticism, whether adverse or favorable, is always welcome to the columnist.

Bernard Shaw said that it was damnation to be ignored. If what we write interests and arouses our readers sufficiently that they will phone or write us regarding it we feel well repaid. It matters little they agree or disagree with what was written. William Bolitho, author of "Twelve Against the Gods," writes: "The most important thing in life is not to capitalize on your gains. Any fool can do that. The really important thing is to profit from your losses. That requires intelligence; and it makes the difference between a man of sense and a fool."

We, like most women, have been aware for sometime of the power that women exert. It was a man who brought a further illustration of this fact to our attention. At a recent council meeting, Reeve Arthur Evans was telling of the work of Health units in the province. He mentioned the difficulties one unit had been experiencing in Prince Edward county. After much consideration it was felt that the unit would have to be closed by a certain date if more money was not made available.

Notices were sent to the councils concerned with the matter. Then the women entered the picture. Home and School associations and Women's Institutes held so many meetings that the sheer weight of their opinions and influence pushed the unit back in functioning condition. (Thank you, Mr. Evans, we like stories like that.)

The stories that children bring home from school are frequently very misleading. One mother told us recently about an incident that concerned her kindergarten lad. He seemed very disgusted with a girl in one of the older classes. She didn't sew a button on her dress, but had it pinned.

"Why doesn't her mother repair it for her," asked the young lad. "You won't let us wear pins in our clothing." The mother agreed that a girl in the senior classes of the school should be able to sew on a button herself and if not, that her mother should attend to the matter. You can imagine her amusement when sometime later she met the girl in question while accompanied by her son. "See, there she is," said the youngster. And sure enough, there was the girl wearing a tartan skirt with the accompanying large blanket pin!

Work done for the national quota consisted of 30 vests, 20 nighties, 100 diapers, 10 sweaters, 11 pairs of overalls.

Mrs. T. Mitchell, reporting for the knitting committee, stated that 20 pairs of 2-year-old socks had been made. The wool quota for 1953 is now on hand and an appeal for knitters was made. Mrs. Wheeland reported on the home nursing course. There were 16 lessons and 22 ladies received certificates.

Mrs. Allen Cody, welfare convener, reported that 10 families had been assisted and several children outfitted. One call was for emergency relief, due to a fire; also a layette was provided in another needy case. Some help went to outlying areas where the people contributed to

Scouts, Cubs, Provide Program At Holland Landing H. and S.

A Parents' Night was held in the community hall, Holland Landing, on Monday, Feb. 23, when the Cubs, Scout and Brownies of the village presented the program for the Holland Landing Home and School association, the sponsoring organization. Over 100 were present.

Each group, under the direction of their leaders, gave a brief demonstration of a regular meeting. Present were District Commissioners Edmunds, Richmond Hill, and Mrs. Nelson Ion, Newmarket.

Mr. Edmunds, who has been actively connected with scouting since prior to the first world war, when he was a scoutmaster, spoke on the aims and objectives of scouting. Referring to the promise and laws which every boy agrees to keep when he becomes a cub or scout, Mr. Edmunds interpreted them to the group.

Congratulating the groups on their progress since their organization less than a year ago, Mrs. Ion told of the Guide tribute planned for Queen Elizabeth. A request was made for a volunteer to begin a Guide company in the village.

Presiding over the meeting was Norman Pearson, chairman of the Scout Men's Group committee who received the charter from Commissioner Edmunds on

North York Minor League Playoffs Planned

It's playoff time in the North York Minor Hockey leagues. League executives meeting Feb. 16 in the Aurora arena drew up the following plan of action designed to produce a champion in both juvenile and midjet.

Aurora, Newmarket, Richmond Hill and Stouffville will vie for the juvenile title and the Stew Patrick Trophy. Aurora and Richmond Hill will meet in one bracket of the semi-finals while Newmarket and Stouffville are matched in bracket two of the semis. Both sets are scheduled to be settled on a best two out of three basis.

The Newmarket vs Stouffville series gets rolling Feb. 27 with Newmarket at Stouffville and game two will be aired locally March 2. On Feb. 20 Aurora played in Richmond Hill and on Feb. 26 Richmond Hill visits Aurora in bracket one action. Third games if required in both series will be set at a later date.

In midjet Newmarket, Aurora and Richmond Hill will meet in a home and home round robin series with the team finishing on top clashing with Bob Walton's Nobleton club for the league title.

SPORT NEWS

HI-SPORTS

Newmarket high school juniors will represent North York in the COSSA ladies' basketball playoffs.

Miss Kelly's juniors swept through North York league competition without the loss of a single game, scoring 30-11, 19-15 victories over Aurora and 25-11 and 19-3 triumphs over Richmond Hill in the process of fashioning a perfect record.

Top performers in the N.H.S. camp were Marilyn Lee, Dawn Gilman, Eleanor Clements, Barb Lucas, Elsie Mitchell, Barb Watt and Lorraine Dolan. The local juniors will meet either Barrie or Orillia in the first round COSSA playdowns and if successful will represent the north in the COSSA finals scheduled for Toronto, March 14.

Newmarket high school seniors, after a three year reign as queens of the North York basketball courts, were dethroned this season. The N.H.S. seniors dropped two games to Richmond Hill and gained one tie, a 12-all thriller, in their league contests with Aurora.

After a slow start, the girls played consistent basketball in the final stages with Isabel Rogers, Glenna Riddell, Joan Robinson, Lois Gibson and Jill Davy supplying the main late season drive.

N.H.S. juniors: Elsie Mitchell, Eleanor Clements, Pat Quinn, Lorraine Dolan, Marilyn Lee, Peggy O'Halloran, Barb Lucas, Marg Cullen, Barb Watt, Frances Markham, Dawn Gilman, Marlene Evans.

N.H.S. seniors: Isabel Rogers, Glenna Riddell, Elaine Taylor, Eleanor Smith, Helen Warren, Marg Arkinstall, Lois McCabe, Joan Robinson, June Wagg, Evelyn Green, Dorothy Brilling, Jill Davy, Lois Gibson.

In men's basketball, Pickering College and Upper Canada College divided a Prep school double-header at Pickering Saturday. In senior, Pickering College led all the way for a 91-47 triumph. A 12 point scoring spurt in the last quarter, including Jerry Diakew's last second basket, gave Upper Canada a 29-28 win in the junior contest.

KESWICK COMETS OUSTED

Ken Davie and his Keswick Comet buddies are stashing their hockey gear in mothballs. Monday night the Comets dropped a 10-7 home decision to Little Britain. That loss meant elimination for the Comets as Little Britain won at home to take the "in or out" Tri-County Rural playoff series in two straight.

Little Britain's last period four-goal drive that broke a 6-all deadlock put the Comets on the shelf. Alb. Smith was Keswick's big gun with three; Ken Davie netted two and Don Smith and Lowell Waller got into the scoring act with single tallies. Lou McTaggart, John Reid and Jack Blake turned in hat trick jobs for Little Britain to supply the Keswick finish.

Down The Centre

BY AB HULSE

Old fashioned mellerdrummer or the villain still pursues her, might very well describe the group finish in the local junior section. Aurora Bears perking on all cylinders like a new '53 model, finally did the trick on Saturday as they belted Collingwood Shirts, 6-5 right in Bushville.

The kids have been waiting for that one all season. That left the Closs clan, with an 18 point total on the season, and no more league games to play. Midland, still in the race, won three games to go, and must win two, and tie one to even Aurora, while three wins would oust the Bears. One loss drops Midland into the discard. The issue appears squarely up to Brothers Bush, and their bully boys.

Skulduggery is afoot according to brother Closs; Owen Sound didn't play in Midland last Friday and on Saturday apparently started a play-off series in "B" against Dixie, the best of seven. Dixie took the first, but how a play-off series can start before the local group ends requires some explaining. Does it mean the group will have to wait, or that the Sound have to default to Midland? The Sound dropped a 8-1 verdict to Midland.

The Bears should be in, however, unless a miracle happens, but it was no miracle that saw the Rowntreemen outplay the Shirts for two periods on Saturday. Truth to tell, the Bears had a bigger edge than one goal, with two soft goals slipping past Joe Burke, and the Aurora team forced to play the last seven minutes shorthanded. At one stage when Bush pulled goalie Hudson from the nets, the Aurora team played six men against three, and were only scored upon once.

With the team short, Pepper Martin, who played an inspired game, scored the goal that eventually proved to be the winner; Burke was terrific in the last stanza.

Joe started the Aurora team well away with two fast first period goals to take the lead and from there they were never headed. Around 100 fans went with the team and from here in it will be more every game. The weekend was a dandy for the club, starting with that 3-2 win over Brampton; they made a trip to Cobourg, where despite the absence of five regulars, they held the home club to 3-3.

On Friday with the full team out, and a Thursday practice under their belts, the boys had their shooting irons well oiled, and they sifted 14 pucks past the Cobourg goalie, while Burke was unlucky to see a shutout by one. Then, to Collingwood on Saturday, and it was "the end of a perfect week."

Friday night, Royal Canadian Armoured Corps, intermediate O.I.A. group winners from Camp Borden will visit Aurora, and it should be a fifty effort. The team management doesn't plan any idle moments for the Bears, but games of the right type are hard to book right now. By next week, the play-off picture should be cleared. Keep your fingers crossed, and hope the miracle of Georgian Bay doesn't materialize.

Around the mulberry bush: Don Claydon, blonde thatched lad who played with Aurora, Cubs a couple of winters ago, is now in action in the Scottish league, and doing right well. Bill Carr, once vice-president of the Aurora hockey club (1939) and father of Frankie Carr, has returned from Sudbury, and has recently been elected president of the Royal Canadian Dragons Association.

Ron Atwell, who played in the district junior "D" group of two years ago with Nobleton, is the storm centre of the controversy that rages between the Quebec and Canadian hockey bodies. Atwell was refused a certificate with Montreal Canadiens in junior as he was a juvenile and the property of Kitchener. Canadians, on advice of the Q.H.A., played him any way. Now the fat is in the fire. There may be no Quebec teams in the Dominion play-offs.

Earl McCrossie, of Orillia Pontiacs, who started his hockey under Charlie Rowntree at Richmond Hill, and also played with Stouffville Clippers, was honored at a banquet this week by Orillia sports fans as he was voted the town's most popular and versatile athlete.

Play-off parade finds Markham Eagles leading the three-horse field of Woodbridge, Markham and Alliston, and Sutton-Port Perry-Haliburton round-robin. Beeton and Nobleton are ticketed in the finals of the junior "D" group. Incidentally, Bill Murray, who had a brief workout with the Bears, and Bill Letts, Bradford, who the Aurora club just hasn't got

Smoke Rings Advance, Humble Collingwood

Newmarket Smoke Rings, performing in championship style, made short work of Collingwood in the first round of the O. M. H. A. playdowns.

On Friday the Frank Hollingsworth-coached Smoke Rings had themselves a scoring buggy ride to blank Collingwood 11-0. That 7-2 win in Collingwood Wednesday, gave the locals an 18-2 majority on the rounds and qualified them for round two of the O.M.H.A. playdowns.

As yet, second round opposition hasn't been made known. The Smoke Rings all but chased Collingwood out of the rink as they erupted for three first, four second and four third period goals.

Center ice pivotman and stick-handler of ability, Danny Patrick, who makes a hobby of getting goals, did himself proud with a four-goal, two-assist effort to pace the Smoke Rings' offensive. Francis Lewis, another worthy front liner, and rock-steady defensive biffer Lorne Babcock padded the Smoke Rings' attack with two goals.

Jack Brooks, Ron Egan and Brian Millon also helped to fill up the score sheet with single lamp lighting attempts. Larry Proctor checkmated the invaders' attempts to break into the scoring column with efficient work in the Smoke Rings' cage.

Newmarket: L. Proctor, L. Babcock, D. Zogalo, F. Lewis, B. Millon, W. Spence, R. Egan, K. Cassavoy, D. Patrick, D. Bone, J. McArthur, G. Kitching, J. Brooks, G. Robertson, J. McGuire, W. Crouch.

Keswick, Newmarket Gals In Two Games

Newmarket and Keswick divided a couple of close home and home ladies hockey games this week.

Playing in the Queensville arena recently, Keswick picked up a 5-4 decision. The teams resumed at Keswick and Newmarket came back to gather in a 4-3 win. Barbara Watt scored three and Glenna Woodhouse one in the Newmarket triumph. Kap Peters drilled in two and Ruth Mary Peters one, for Keswick.

In the 5-4 win, Helen Porter led Keswick with three goals while Bev Peters and Ruth Mary Peters scored singletons. Barbara Watt and Helen Burch shared the Newmarket scoring with two goals each.

Newmarket: L. Purcell, H. Watt, B. Watt, J. MacDonald, B. Crouch, H. Burch, G. Woodhouse, N. Christie, H. Stewart.

Keswick: K. Peters, R. M. Peters, B. Peters, H. Porter, L. Sawdon, B. Draper, P. Draper, G. Genge, B. York, R. York.

Smoke Rings Nab Two-Goal Lead

Newmarket Gorman Smoke Rings defeated Port Hope Flyers 5-3 at the arena Saturday in an OMHA bantam B playdown game. This gives the Frank Hollingsworth-coached Smoke Rings a two goal edge to take them into the second game of the two-game, total points, series. The second game will be played in Port Hope tonight, Thursday.

A victory in the series will advance the Smoke Rings to the fourth round of the OMHA play-offs. It's the first time a Newmarket bantam club has got beyond the first round in OMHA competition. The well-knit Smoke Rings' offensive starts strongly.

Francis Lewis batted in Lorne Babcock's pass and Jack Brooks rerouted a Danny Patrick relay into the Port's cage for a Smoke Rings 2-0 first period margin. Scott counted for the invaders in the first minute of the second period before speedster Lorne Babcock manipulated two quick goals to make it 4-1.

Don Egan hit the target with Don Zogalo's goal mouth pass to set the Smoke Rings up. Egan produced the seventh minute hit in the seventh minute of the first period. After that Smoke Rings faded slightly and Port Hope came back to nump two shots past Larry Proctor to whittle the Smoke Rings' lead to two goals. Dave Greenaway and Ted Watts counted in the Port's final drive.

Newmarket: L. Proctor, W. Spence, D. Bone, D. Patrick, F. Lewis, B. Millon, D. Patrick, E. Genge, J. Brooks, J. McArthur, B. Cook, W. Crouch, G. Robertson.

around to signing, are the big guns of the Beeton club and would look O.K. in an Aurora sweater. Don Letts is another good boy.

Aurora Floodlight committee will appear before council on Monday next to set forth their plans and seek municipal support. A canvass of the public and industry will shortly be made. Jimmy Murray, Gardiner Lloyd and all the lads are doing a great job of organizing the program of obtaining information and costs.

School Hockey League

Shutout sessions were the vogue again in the school squirt games Saturday. Bruins nipped Rangers 1-0, Leafs topped Black Hawks 1-0, Rangers and Canadiens tied 1-1. In pee-wee, bottom teams upset their higher-up brethren as Spits spilled Bilts 7-3 and Marlboros punished Flyers 6-0.

John Hodge soaked in a relay from Terry Peever and Keith Burling to set up the Bruins' win. The victory enabled the Bruins to hold onto second place. Peter Watt's nifty goal preserved the Leafs' first place lead and furnished them with a 1-0 win over the Hawks. Larry Keffer was Watt's helmpate.

Brian Bales netted for Rangers while Larry Tunney stroked in the Canadian's reply in their 1-1 standoff. Terry Budd, Jim McArthur and Ian Dick netted two goals each and John Hopper added one goal support as Spits eclipsed Bilts 7-3. Bob Keffer, Gord Burgess and Jack Gunn scored for the Bilts.

Despite the loss, Bilts hung onto first place. Don Bone bagged two, John Walker, Wayne Crouch, Paul Blair and Bobby Rogers cashed a goal each as Marlboros scalped the Flyers. The loss skidded the Flyers into the league basement.

Optimists Win Two

Newmarket Optimists bagged their second straight win in the North York midjet hockey league round-robin semi-final series when they defeated Aurora Legion 6-4 at the arena on Friday.

Aurora, Newmarket and Richmond Hill are round-robin participants. The Optimists, frustrated in their first period attempts to score, spotted Aurora a one goal lead, then exploded for six goals in the final two periods to salt away the decision. Bill Forhan was the Optimists' super score man with three goals. Warren Townsley dished up two and Jack Cain counted a single tally.

Don Thomas, Earl Lothian, Don McKnight, Laurie VanZant and Bob Wilson, though goal-getting absentees, "rated marks" in the assist column. Jon Bunn dunked Bud Sutton's relay, Sutton scored on a solo dash, Fred Boleyn knifed through the Newmarket rear guard and Don Geary netted unassisted to supply the Aurora scoring plays.

Will Not Count Win By Mount Albert

Town Regents and Mount Albert will have to do a repeat on Tuesday's town league semi-final contest, won by Mount Albert 10-5. Regents protested the eligibility of Mountie defenseman Tom Hare. The league executive meeting after Tuesday's games, upheld the protest and ordered the game struck from the record books.

The Regents' protest was based on the fact that Tom Hare only appeared in two regular season games.

A league ruling stipulates that a player, to be eligible for three playoffs, must play in three league contests. Town League semis resume next Tuesday with Kettleby going against Vaudorl in the early game and Mount Albert and Regents clashing in the nightcap.

and Pearl Codlin 614 (205, 177, 232) to sparkplug the scoring. Five hundred bracket shotmakers were Phyl McInnis 590, Ede Hall 584, Emma Broadbent 556, Lil Watt 528, Arva Thoms 520, Edna McGrath 516, Mary Osborne 514, Annie Stickland 505.

Bears Win In Collingwood

Aurora Bears' supporters can again start thinking in championship terms. And they have every right to dwell at length on the subject. It finally happened. The Bears shot into Collingwood Saturday to top Eddie Bush's Greenshirts 6-5 in a sparkling, 27-penalty-crammed junior C game.

The win did two things. It proved Collingwood could be beaten at home, which will be something to remember later on, and secondly, it just about assured the Closs-Rownstreet-Clark led Bears of a spot in the group playoffs.

The Bears put the bite on a 4-2 lead over the first two rounds. At that the Bears rated a much larger margin. The trouble was they couldn't get the boot heel past Greenshirts' goalie, Don Hudson, who persistently robbed the Bears of sure fire goals.

Bears allowed the Greenshirts the luxury of the first goal before Joe Gasko bagged two goals to spearhead a Bear's comeback drive. Joe was helped on both his goals by Grant Edwards. Andy Closs, who turned in a nifty defensive job and Nobby Ash, up for this game, were the Bears' other early production men. Bill Maguire and Pepper Martin produced the Bear's third period goals as Collingwood applied pressure to outscore the Bears 3-2.

Martin's goal was the game-winner and it was Pep's consistent digging in the corners, along with Joe Burke's steady performance between the pipes that enabled the Bears to withstand Collingwood's last ditch drive. Jim Collins got credit for two Collingwood goals and the others fell to Jim MacMillan, Bill Kirk and Jerry Rawn.

HASHMAN AWARD

For Bill Forhan

The Hub and district boasts some promising hockey lads. One of our brightest goal-getters is "Pocket Rocket" Bill Forhan. Bill, operating Friday in the Optimists' N.H.L. and against Aurora in a North York Midjet Hockey League playdown game, piled up an impressive six goal evening. Bill produced three in the N.H.L. contest and that jet propelled effort gave him a tie with Grant Morton for the league's scoring crown. Bill climaxed his big night of goal-getting with three against Aurora and that scoring spurt featured Newmarket Optimists' 6-4 win over Aurora. You'll agree that's a pretty full evening for a young hockey man and it's a pleasure to name Pocket Rocket for the Hashman award and Roxy Theatre pass.

Haskett's HASH

BY GEORGE HASKETT

Newmarket Sports Editor

It's a week for the optimists. Sport pages are overflowing with good news. Spits do in the Builders again, Bears win in Collingwood, bantam Smoke Rings advance. That's not all; along comes a note from Ted Robinson on our favorite sport, baseball.

Storeman Ted who doubles in brass as manager of Newmarket's intermediate baseball hopefuls advises that the Newmarket Legion will sponsor the intermediate big diamond boys. They are meeting Monday to put the ball club in ship shape. Say fellow, remember hockey? Never mind, it's a good idea to get rolling early.

More diamond notes: Guess we'll have to send our scouts out. Redmen hardballers have lost Jimmy "Scooter" Cook and third sacker Bill Grant. However by the sound of things, everybody and his uncle will make a bid for the team this summer. Say I wonder if I could make those long, long 90-foot bases?

Several hockey filberts dig us on the subject of the Big Eight standing. They're confused they say, move over chums, we'll join you. All we know is the Spits have two more league contests with the Builders to complete their regular season. At the moment, not counting Builders' visit here tonight, Spits have won two of the six games played between the sides this term.

Notes from the merry-go-round: Our Smoke Rings go into Port Hope tonight, protecting a two goal lead. Coach Hollingsworth and yours truly have their fingers crossed. Keep yours' crossed too. If they win Parry Sound are next opposition.

Town Leaguers have all the fun. Mount Albert won and lost Tuesday. They won on the ice; town Regents won around the protest board. Tuesday's game has to be replayed. Don't be surprised if Kettleby upsets them all. On their showing Tuesday, they eclipsed Vandorf 8-4; Combines have unlocked their payoff play-off punch and could scoop up the league title.

Someone requests the coaches' names in the town loop. Doug Alcorn helms Vandorf, Stan Terry and Bill Hodgson mastermind Kettleby, Father T. J. McCabe and Hack Cain are Regents' coaches and Murray Edgar is coach, manager and chief scout of the Mounties.

Another good thing: it was good to see Hack Cain, Scotty Mair and Bill Thoms come back to familiar surroundings Monday. Only thing wrong with Monday's flood benefit game was the crowd. There were just under 600 on hand. Thought for sure the joint would be crammed to the rafters.

We notice Aurora Town Leaguers spring to semi-final action stations next Tuesday. Mickey Sutton's Ditch Diggers, after a triumph season, rule as favorites to cop the bunting. Newmarket and Aurora leagues should wind up about the same time. How about a series between the winners?

Jimmy Murray, Cliff Chapman and Norm Mathews and the Aurora floodlight funders are going strong in their endeavors to clear the tracks for floodlight installation in the Aurora park this summer. They'll do it too, or my name isn't Hash.

How did you like Jack Shropshire refereeing last Thursday? Tops wasn't it? O.H.A. recently laid down a get tough policy; perhaps this was the first result. Anyhow, Mr. Shropshire, who incidentally was born here in the Hub, ruled with a firm hand and didn't miss many infractions. More refereeing of this type and before you know it the teams will be playing hockey and not staging swinging, wrestling and what have you bouts.

Game Raises $300 For Fund

The Bill Thoms coached Maher Shoemen and Avro's Canucks of the Varsity arena, Major Commercial circuit, battled to a 5-all tie in the Flood Benefit game at the arena Monday. Approximately 600 fans attended and a little over $300 will be sent along to the British-Dutch Flood Relief Fund.

The game was sponsored by the local Flood Relief Committee, headed by Bob McGuire, Joe Dales and Eddie Wrightman. Between periods, skaters Maureen West, Colleen Cain, Jeanne MacDonald and Guy Revell drew a big round of applause for their fine exhibition of figure skating.

Main event of interest centered around the ice lane patrol work of Hubsters Hack Cain, Scotty Mair, Laurie Thoms and Harold Tunstead. Our Hub quartet, playing with the visiting crews didn't disappoint us. Hack Cain, showing NHL polish around the Avro's twine pagoda, netted Mahers' second goal and started off the three-way relay that enabled ex-Markhamite Geo. Scott to finish off Mahers' tying goal.

Ortie Thoms, Cain's forward string mate, got into the act with his pass that set up Mahers' first goal. With Mahers 4-3 leaders heading into the third, Scotty Mair showing flashes of his old time form, came through with Avro's tying goal. Fink Tunstead, making his third start with Avros, as well as handing out some solid jolts, got up and over the Maher blue-line to earn an assist on Avro's start-off tally. Winger John Petro was Mahers' ace with three goals while Tod Miller bagged two to lead Avros.

Spits Take Builders 7-4

Coach Harry Morrison turned out a Spitfire machine that had gobs of hustle, skate, check and bump and plenty of heart Thursday and because of this, the Spits trimmed Collingwood Shipbuilders 7-4. It was the second such triumph over Collingwood in the past two home games.

It was a peppery sort of affair. Referee Jack Shropshire saw to it that the penalty bench was a lively spot and several times chief clock watcher Larry Sheffe had to put the delayed penalty system into vogue.

There were 10 first, 13 second and 9 third period sentences. They were all minor; Spits had 18 and Collingwood 14. That condition of course gave the penalty killers their innings to shine and in this respect Don Gibson, Keto Collings, Grant Firth, Al Shewchuk, Jack Andrews and Les Clarke came in for plaudits from the cheering 1,300 fans in the pews. Jack Wheeler, Don Keith, Barney Wamsley and Jim Green performed creditably for Collingwood in similar roles.

Spits were quick to start. Before the clock had ticked away three minutes they were 2-0 leaders. They added to their count with two second period goals to make it 4-0 before Collingwood broke the goose-egg. The teams dished up their biggest block of scoring in the final 20 minutes, scoring six goals and dividing these evenly at three apiece.

Bill Johnston opened the Spits' merry-go-round and Myles McInnis scooped in Bill Mabbett's pass to keep it rolling. Don Gibson and Jack Andrews bagged Spits' second session counters. Andrews, playing one of his best games, made his picture effort as he cruised through the invaders' rear-guard to arrive in the nick of time to push in Don Smith's pass. Don Gibson, Keith Collings and Bill Patrick counted in that sequence in the final period.

Ross Hochberg swooshed up the ice in old time style to feed Gibson for his polish-off play in front of Westbrook. Collings' dig was the result of night-long perseverance and hard work with Ken Broughton and Don Gibson rating assists. Bill Patrick, making his initial appearance, clinaxed a good start-off performance with his breakaway clincher.

Ken Tupling made it a rather unprofitable evening for the would-be Builder snipers. Tup didn't have a chance on the shots that did beat him, these were furnished by Jack Cochrane, Jim Green and Frank Dance.

Richmond Hill Wins Badminton Event

Richmond Hill badminton artists swept up all the prizes and championships in the first annual Aurora and district badminton tournament, staged in the Aurora high school gym Saturday.

Approximately 30 teams, representing Aurora, Newmarket, Richmond Hill, Willowdale, Stouffville and Markham clubs entered and tournament committee chairman Keith Davis reports the event was a complete success.

Prizes were presented by Harry Boyd and Pep Parryment, Aurora, and Colonel Gzowski, Toronto. Results in the finals were as follows:

Bears Swamp Cobourg In Exhibition Game

Scoring six first period goals, two in the second and six more in the third, Aurora Bears drubbed Cobourg J's 14-1 in an exhibition junior C game in the Aurora arena Friday.

Cobourg, supposed Eastern Ontario champs, never had a look in as the Bears turned on a high geared scoring romp that netted them 14 goals and 18 assists.

Pepper Martin and Bob Veale spearheaded the Bears' gallop with hat trick jobs while Andy Closs and Nobby Ash had zip on the attack to notch two goals apiece. The other Bear tallies fell to Bob Cook, Bill Maguire, Grant Edwards and Geo. Dempsey while Artie Barber, Bob Hanna, Joe Gasko and Bill Smith got into the act in the assist column.

Joe Burke enjoyed a lazy man's job in the Aurora cage, having but six shots to handle. Joe lost his shut-out to Frank McIvor, the visitors' best, in the last three minutes of action.

Rangers In Semi-Finals, Bruins, Canadiens Win

Rangers, Bruins and Canadiens were Friday victors in the closing struggles of the Optimists' N.H.L. schedule. Highlight was the Rangers' 5-2 victory over Wings. That win qualified the Rangers for the fourth and last playoff slot and knocked Wings out.

Bruins ignited for seven third period goals to climax a 14-0 win over the unfortunate Hawks. Canadiens took a 6-5 win over Leafs to lengthen their first place margin. The Bruins' win, coupled with the Leafs' loss, left the two teams deadlocked for second place.

Bill Cain scored two; Jack Hopkins, Jack Cain and Don Zagalo collected a goal each to give the Rangers their lift into the playoff circle. Charlie McGuire and Warren Townsley steered in the Wings' markers.

Earl Lothian filled his hat with five goals to lead the Bruins. Don Thoms notched three. Norm Smart and John Galbraith two each while Bill Bellar and Harold Harper engineered a goal each in the Bruins' free scoring outburst. Bill Forhan netted three, Grant Morton two and Lorne Babcock one in the Canadiens' triumph. Don McKnight registered two while Brian Stokes, Ken Bell and Bob Wilson came in for acclaim for one goal sniping in the Leafs' camp.

John Learoyd Wins League Scoring Crown

John Learoyd, Mount Albert's ace playmaking pivot man, compiled 40 points, 18 goals and 22 assists, to win the Newmarket and District Hockey League scoring championship. Learoyd will receive the Ray Smith trophy.

Park Floodlighting Proposal Supported By Rec. Commission: Aurora Wins 19 Music Awards

Floodlighting of the town park which was the subject of an editorial in last week's Aurora News Page, was a prominent feature in the business of the recreation commission at its meeting on Thursday night, Feb. 19. Another matter of interest was the formation of a club for elderly retired citizens, also a project of the commission.

The chairman of the sportsmen's committee which is sponsoring floodlighting, Councillor D. J. Murray, brought to the attention of the commission the success which has already attended the project and stated that it was fully apparent that it was something that the citizens wanted. Mr. Murray paid tribute to the editorial in Aurora News Page and for the support it contained for the proposal to floodlight the town park.

Members of the commission expressed their approval of the project, and it was agreed that Mr. Don Glass would appear before the town council to explain what the committee had in mind.

Retired Citizens' Club
Mr. Sam King, chairman of the commission's culture committee, informed members that the opening of a room in the old town hall to provide facilities for a club, for games and reading, had met with immediate success. He stated that Mr. Victor Attridge had made a generous gift of card tables and also a croquinoile board and Mr. H. D. Hamilton had presented members with a radio. These gifts were deeply appreciated.

Already some 15 to 20 retired citizens were making use of the room for games and reading. It was expected that this number would be considerably increased as the use of the room became better known and Mr. King thanked the press for the publicity it had given to the commission's project, a write-up of which was given in Aurora News Page.

Hushman Award
By the way, Councillor D. J. Murray is the chairman of the playgrounds committee which will be responsible for recommendations to the recreation commission for the spending of the $800 (eight hundred, that is) donated by the Rotary club, for the purpose of providing equipment for the children.

The failure of the striking committee of council to put Mr. Murray back on the Sports and Publicity committee for 1953, after his excellent services during 1952 has been much commented on by the sportsmen in town. Whatever qualifications Reeve Cook and Deputy-Reeve Jas. Murray may possess as sportsmen (both are members of the striking committee), neither has taken the same active interest in sport as Councillor Murray.

For the year 1952, Councillor Murray received the Hushman Award for the highest rating among Aurora sportsmen. The award is an annual one and the judge is Mr. George Haskett, sports editor of the Era and Express, himself a well-known and popular sportsman in Ontario. The following is what Mr. Haskett wrote in the Era and Express in its issue of December 31, 1952:

In Aurora when there's sport work to be done, they don't say let George do it; they say let Alderman Jimmy Murray do it. And they couldn't turn the job over to a better sportsman. Jim was headman of both the Aurora Softball and Hockey leagues and is chairman of the Aurora Floodlighting softball field in 1953. In making the choice we must say we had to overlook a dozen or more chaps who put in hours and hours of work with our minor ball and hockey teams."

FIRST PUBLIC PERFORMANCE

Appreciative Audience Hears Successful Symphony Recital

Giving its first public performance before a large audience at the United church on Sunday night, Feb. 22, the Coronation Little Symphony orchestra, under the conductorship of Rod Smith, evoked appreciative applause. The program was an ambitious one, including excerpts from Mozart, Beethoven and Wagner also the difficult pizzicato polka by Leo Delibes.

The orchestra is made up of members from Aurora, Newmarket, Richmond Hill and districts. It has been in existence less than six months but during that short period has assembled nearly two score instrumentalists. It is not professional in purpose but devoted to music for the love of music. Thirty-eight performers took part in the program, some of whom were married couples.

In Delibes' polka, J. R. Willis gave an exhilarating solo performance on the flute and in the selection from Wagner's Tannhauser, G. Freshwater's cornet and H. Spragg's trombone solos were well received. The orchestra displayed fine co-ordination in Mozart's Minuetto in G major and Beethoven's "Ode to Joy." The pleasure of the large audience was repeatedly in evidence at the conclusion of the several selections.

Orchestra's History
During an interlude in the performances, Mayor Rose gave a brief resume of the orchestra's history. Stating that it had been in existence for only five months, when four people originated it, Mr. Rose explained that it had come a long way in that brief time. The ages of the players ranged from 18 to 70 and represented members from Aurora and district as far away as central Europe. They were, he said, animated by one purpose only, their collective love of music.

The mayor stated that the next public appearance of the orchestra would take place in May and it was anticipated that this event would attract a very large gathering of patrons.

Reply to Letter

We have received a very pleasant letter from "an old-time ratepayer and property owner" in Aurora who asks us, in effect, whether we think it is in order for anyone who is not a property-owner to be appointed to the planning board to "plan for others who are property-owners". We think this is a fair question.

As we see it, a man may rent a house or an apartment and prove himself a much more competent and practical planner than someone who owns property. We know a few people in Aurora who have rented properties for years. It can often happen that where the relationship between a landlord and a tenant is cordial, the tenant prefers to rent rather than to own.

All other things being equal, there is no reason why such arrangements should not continue over long periods.

It would seem to us, therefore, that there is no good reason why a tenant of high credentials should be barred from engaging in active community affairs for the reason that he is a tenant and not a property-owner. It has been suggested more than once that some people like to secure appointments to planning boards for the personal reason that they could exert a selfish influence on the same. Naturally, it is not suggested that this could happen in Aurora.

It could be that a non-property-owner would take a more disinterested view in regard to planning than otherwise; and for such reasons we think a tenant has an equal right to his opinions on the development of his community as a property owner. We hope this answers "Old-Timer's" letter and we thank him for his kind references to Aurora News Page comments.

THURSDAY, THE TWENTY-SIXTH DAY OF FEBRUARY, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-THREE

EDITORIALS

BOTH JURYMAN AND JUDGE!

The appointment of Mr. Lorne Lee as a member of the Planning board, by a majority of council, was fantastic. There was no logic in it at all. Mr. Lee is the town solicitor. He should stand outside all town organizations possessed of executive or semi-executive powers. He is, first and last, legal adviser to the town. As such his position is strictly legally impartial.

No man can be a member of a jury and a judge at one and the same time. Either he is a jurymen or a judge. If he were both, then he would be in a sadly prejudiced position. Since a majority of council has made him a member of the Planning board, that majority has placed Mr. Lee in a prejudiced position when the time comes that he has to step out of character as Planning board member and assume the role of legal adviser to the town on Planning board proposals.

We wish we could be convinced that Councillor Dale King was animated by purely altruistic motives when he nominated Mr. Lee as a Planning board member. Could it be that Mr. King has been peeved and piqued at what has been alleged as Mr. Lee's "filibustering" over the contentious zoning by-law? Could it be that the nomination of Mr. Lee to the Planning board was a somewhat churlish way of "getting even with him"?

Few members of council have studied either the Planning Act or the zoning by-law and consequently are in a state of mental darkness over both. There is the danger! Council members voting on something they know nothing about. Mr. Lee is well-informed on the Planning Act and the zoning by-law. His knowledge has saved the town of Aurora from being a mere stool-pigeon. Far from appreciating him some council members have derided him. It is a pity that it should be so.

WHERE THE CAP FITS!

The promotion of worthy causes is often attended by small-minded bickerings and jealousies. Some organization springs into action and gives a lead; then another organization leaps into action to assert that it shall not be undone in the sharing of the ultimate glory. Then rivalry engenders its potent jealousies and the early fine incentives are corroded from the start.

The very first mention we heard of a relief effort in Aurora on behalf of the stricken flood victims came from the lips of Mr. Illyd Harris. He called at the office to say that he was going to put on a recital at the United church and was assured that the Junior chamber of commerce would sponsor the effort. "But," said Mr. Harris, "the mayor of the town, as its first citizen, will quite properly inaugurate the effort."

Accordingly we wrote up a news story based on these arrangements. Almost at the moment of its going to press we were advised that it would need to be altered. Other arrangements were being made which would eliminate the Junior chamber sponsorship. We deeply regretted this amendment, knowing what a fine, healthy, dynamic and go-getter body the Junior chamber is.

We heard of an organizational meeting taking place where a man was spouting at considerable length on how funds should be collected, when a lady asked the pertinent question: "Are we more concerned about getting funds for the needy or our own self-glory?" The question brought a salutary silence on the spouter and some good work resulted later.

There is no self-glory in homes destroyed by floods and desolation. What the victims need is as much practical help in money as an always generous-hearted Canadian public can give them.

THE GATE-CRASHERS

The gate-crashers, like the social climbers, are a distinctive breed. They make their undesirable presence felt in all classes of life. They like to attach themselves to organizations and, unless they are checked, will attempt to "run" them. It is not a question of what contribution they can make, either of a mental or a material character. It is a question only of how far they can impose themselves for egotistic satisfaction and, perhaps, personal profit.

Because of our newspaper connections we have often received, here and there, invitations to this and that. Some we have accepted, but most we have respectfully declined. We shrink from the idea of nosing in on service clubs and the like, which exist primarily for their accepted and dues-paying members. We are sensitive about over-reaching hospitalities. We are aware that the trouble with some men is not to get them in, but, short of muscular means, to keep them out.

A newspaper representative should, we think, restrict himself within the limits of the most careful impartiality. It is, we think, his business to remain an on-looker, an observer, on events, rather than a "joiner", or, worse still a visitor of such insensitive persistence that he comes to be regarded as a pest.

Only through personal detachment from civic organizations can a newspaper representative maintain the needed impartiality for presenting unbiased reports and opinions. Immediately he attaches himself to any one of them through active membership, his status is inevitably prejudiced.

COUNCIL SIDELIGHTS

Appointing Town Solicitor To Planning Board Places Him In Prejudiced Position

Since its inception in the year 1947, the Aurora Planning board has held a great number of meetings, talked much, and spent several thousand dollars of the taxpayers' money. Most of the money spent has gone to an outside consultant. For all the talk and meetings and costly plans, what has the Planning board done for the good of Aurora?

The latter question would be hard to answer. Some of its proposals have engendered much local bitterness. Time and money have been spent by council in trying to unravel Planning board riddles, assisted by the town solicitor. What has the Planning board achieved for Aurora? We have still to find the answer.

One of its original members was Mr. E. H. Clarke. His term of office having expired, he was nominated for re-appointment at the February 2 meeting of council. His re-appointment was unanimous. At the last meeting of council on February 16, Mayor Rose read the following letter from Mr. Clarke. It was dated February 5, and addressed to the mayor.

"By the press report of the meeting of the Aurora town council of February 2, I see that my nomination as a member of the Planning board was accepted. I thank the council for its confidence in me. However, it has been apparent for some time that the town council is not happy about the recommendations of its Planning board and, in my judgment, this makes the board's work futile, therefore I am not prepared to accept the position.

"If the work of your Planning board, during the past, has not been all it should have been, any future action might be even less effective when the board is deprived of the wisdom and good judgment of Mr. Stuart Mills. One of its ablest and most devoted members." The letter concludes with Mr. Clarke's references to the "strenuous hours of painstaking work on the board" and his intention to contribute what he can to "the future good of Aurora to keep it a town of healthy, happy homes."

Better Fold Up
It would appear from Mr. Clarke's letter that his reason for non-acceptance of the appointment made by council was because the Planning board is now "deprived of the wisdom" of Mr. Stuart Mills. It doesn't sound very complimentary to the other members of the board! Councillor Davidson asked whether Mr. Clarke's letter implied that the Planning board was no good without Mr. Mills?

Mayor Rose said he "resented" the suggestion that council was responsible for "depriving" the Planning board of Mr. Mills' services. The resentment was thoroughly justified. It was Mr. Mills himself who "deprived" the Planning board of his "wisdom" by resigning from the board, and refusing council's invitation to reconsider his decision.

If the Planning board cannot do "effective" work, lacking the "wisdom" of Mr. Mills, it will inevitably have to fold up; for Mr. Mills, like the Arab, has folded his tent and gone his way. Gone, too, is Mr. Clarke, and only Dr. Boulding remains of the original trio. "London bridge is falling down, falling down."

New Nursery Rhyme
Reeve Cook didn't want to accept Mr. Clarke's resignation, goodness knows why. The gentleman did not wish to go on and said so clearly. Yet the reeve opposed a motion that the resignation be accepted, moved by councillor Jones and seconded by councillor Murray. Deputy-revee Murray and councillor Davis lined up with the reeve and the vote was on. Had councillor Dale King not been late for the meeting we expect he would have gone along with the reeve.

Mr. Clarke refused to carry on. His letter said so. The only sensible and even courteous thing to do was to accept Mr.

Clarke's self-chosen decision. Four sensible and courteous people did just that. Councillors Davidson, Jones, Moffat and Murray voted for acceptance of Mr. Clarke's decision, and that was that.

Apparently it has become a habit for deputy-revee Murray and councillor King to vote as reeve Cook votes. Councillor Davis also appears to be up for keeps on the Cook band-wagon. It reminds us of the nursery rhyme of Mary and her little lamb. We suggest revising it to read: "And everywhere that Asa went, Clarence was sure to go."

Why The Hurry?
There were three Planning board vacancies to fill, one for a one-year term and two for three-year terms. Mr. J. Ardill was appointed for the one-year term, to do the job that Mr. Mills was appointed to do, but chose to resign. Mr. Doug Richardson was appointed for a three-year term, and from our personal knowledge of him the appointment was a good one. He's not the sort of man who'll chuck the job because he cannot get his own way. He'll accept majority rulings with good grace.

As for putting Mr. Lorne Lee on the board, council, in our opinion, fell down badly. Reeve Cook had a moment of clear illumination when he questioned such an appointment, but fell down when councillor King said it would be a good thing to have a lawyer on the board. That could be true. But there are other lawyers in town besides Mr. Lee. Why all the hurry? The appointment could easily have been held over for a couple of weeks to permit of other nominations.

But Mr. Lee was hustled on to the board to serve as a member while at the same time he is the town's legal adviser, a point which councillor D. J. Murray forcibly emphasized. As we have said elsewhere, he cannot be both a jurymen and a judge at one and the same time. As legal adviser he will inevitably be recommending to council what it should, or should not, do on policies that he, in his capacity as a board member, had helped to shape.

We suggest that council has placed Mr. Lee in a prejudiced position both in relation to council and the planning board. This impossible set of circumstances should be ironed out as speedily as possible. Council should acknowledge its error and provide Mr. Lee with an opportunity to withdraw from the planning board, so that he can resume his position as impartial legal adviser to council on all questions that come before it. Until rectification is made, the town solicitor is placed in an impossible position.

NY Humane Society
A lengthy report on the operations of the North York Humane society was presented to council. It states that "after selling our Newmarket property, we were most fortunate in the purchase of four acres of land on Ross street, Aurora, for the sum of $1,500."

A comment in the report is as follows: "Dog control is not an impossible position."

Health Unit Director Speaks To Parent-Teacher Association

Dr. Robert King, director of the York County Health unit, addressed the February meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, St. John's Chrystom school, Newmarket. Murray Roberts presided.

Rev. Father T. J. McCabe opened the meeting with prayer. The question of a guard for the corner of Main and Ontario Sts. was discussed. It was decided to determine whose responsibility it was to hire such a guard as is on duty at the Lorne and Eagle St. corner. A letter was sent to the town clerk, Wesley Brooks, regarding the matter.

Discussion was held on the provision of milk for the pupils of St. John's school. It was decided to provide milk for those children whose parents wished it, at the expense of the parents concerned.

A work committee was set up to raise funds for some recognition of this year's entrance class. Chairman is Joe Tunney with Mrs. Leo Forhan and Mrs. Fred McMurray as committee members.

In introducing the guest speaker, Dr. King, Dick Hamon reviewed the doctor's work from his graduation at the University of Toronto until the formation of the Health unit 2 1/2 years ago.

Dr. King's talk centred on the responsibility of parents in safeguarding their children from accidents and disease through preventative measures. Parents should be certain that they have taken all necessary precautions to prevent accidents in the home, on the street, at the beach or through the misuse of firearms or poisons.

The subject of nutrition was also discussed by Dr. King who urged that all school age children receive citrus fruits and some form of cod liver oil daily. He spoke about the Health League of Canada and outlined the progress of the local Health unit. Dr. King emphasized the need for the early treatment by the family physician of any sickness and asked parents to take advantage of the free chest x-ray when the mobile unit is in this area.

B. AND P. CLUB
International Night was celebrated by the Newmarket Business and Professional Women's club on Monday, Feb. 16, when over 45 gathered at the King George hotel for a dinner meeting. Guest speaker was Mrs. Helen Tierney, Toronto.

Dr. Marguerite Bailey, regional advisor, York-Peel Inter-Club council for this district, visited the Newmarket club. The impressive candle lighting ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Horace Jaques with Dr. Bailey lighting the candles. Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards spoke briefly on jury service for women and Mrs. Rose Kudelka reported on U.N. activities. Mrs. Myrtle Purcell reported on the equal pay for equal work committee. Members of the Aurora B. and P. club were present for the meeting.

Mrs. Tierney, who is the director of women personnel for the insurance company of North America, spoke on the topic, "Toward Full Partnership". She was introduced by Miss L. Thomas. Miss Sutton extended the club's vote of thanks to Mrs. Tierney. Presiding was Miss Nevin Ayers.

In her address, Mrs. Tierney said, "Idealism is a splendid thing. It is a beacon which guides our finer instincts. But it is not enough only to believe. We must act also. It is not only what we believe, but what we do to support our beliefs that adds up to ultimate accomplishment."

"By full partnership we must be willing to accept the responsibilities with the rights. They are indivisible. The freedom we seek is not just a freedom from restraint but a freedom to do. We women have a stake in our community and country. It means work, economically, socially and politically; it means work done sincerely, intelligently and objectively if we are to pave the road toward full partnership."

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis, Colville

ORCHESTRAS

Archie and I realized a long held desire, when on Wednesday evening of last week, we, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Blodale, Hilda and Denise, went to Massey Hall to hear the Toronto Symphony Orchestra with Sir Ernest MacMillan conducting and Isaac Stern, violinist, as guest artist.

Sometimes a dream, long cherished, loses, on fulfillment, its glory. Not so was this one!

We had excellent seats and watched the gathering of the audience and players. Some things struck me about this audience in comparison with others I have seen. One thing was the age spread. There were people so old and feeble that they had to be assisted to their seats and in contrast there were children, and those not the least attentive listeners.

In between were all ages and what gave me a thrill was the large percentage of teenagers.

Another thing that struck us all was the absolute attention given the music. Even a cough or an involuntary movement seemed out of place. People were there for one purpose and one purpose only, to hear the

Then for Archie and me, violinists, even though this so evident as in his conducting of the orchestra in Concerto in D Minor by Sibelius with Isaac Stern, guest violinist.

The sympathetic understanding between the artist, Sir Ernest and the orchestra, was to us, one of the highlights of a much highlighted evening.

What a wand was that bow of Isaac Stern! It whispered and sang. It was a voice crying in the wilderness; it was wind in the trees and waves on the sea. It spoke woe and it spoke rapture and always one saw the magnificent technique, the mastery of a difficult and wilful instrument.

One felt the genius of Sibelius speaking through this artist. It was a triumph of art.

In Prokofiev's Symphony, which concluded the program, I tried to think what to liken the orchestra to. It was like waves breaking on the shore, rhythmic, colorful, powerful, sometimes with soft lapping and sometimes with heavy swells, sometimes with thundering power.

Yet it was all of this and more for there was the human hand guiding the human hands and mouths and ears responding. It was, in fact, the universal language, speaking in its best and most beautiful form.

Coronation Symphony
This little symphony orchestra played a short program, following the service in the United church, Aurora. There was a good attendance, showing that "music hath charms" whether it be produced by a large orchestra or a small one. I think we had 38 players last night.

We saw some of our friends from Newmarket in the audience and there were also people from the various places from which a part of the orchestra is drawn.

There is something about playing in an orchestra which de-

The 19,665-ton luxury liner De Grasse has been purchased by Canadian Pacific Steamships for the trans-Atlantic trade. The vessel, formerly operated by the French Line on the Havre-New York service and on West Indies cruises where she built up an enviable reputation for her comfortable and spacious accommodation, will replace the Empress of Canada, which was destroyed by fire recently at her Liverpool dock. The De Grasse has accommodation for 358 first class and 355 tourist passengers. It is expected that she will enter service under her new ownership sailing from Liverpool April 28 for Montreal. The ship was scuttled by her French crew during World War II to prevent her falling into the hands of the Nazis and after the war was refloated and completely reconditioned, re-entering peace-time service in 1947.

Large Vote In Favor Of Warble Fly Control In Whitchurch Twp.

Clerk Jack Crawford announced to Whitchurch township council recently that returns were in from the recent warble fly vote taken of the farmers in the township and revealed a favorable majority of more than eighty per cent.

There are 393 cattle breeders in the municipality. Of these 334 voted in favor of carrying out warble fly control measures and 12 objected. The total number of cattle to be treated would be 6,998.

In addition to two members of the local Federation of Agriculture, M. F. Cockburn, Newmarket, county agricultural representative, appeared before council and gave some explanation of the process and cost of the treatment.

Mr. Cockburn stated that 50 percent of the cost of the inspectors and 50 percent of the cost of materials used would be paid for by the Dept. of Agriculture. The inspectors to be selected by council would be given school instruction prior to the commencement of the cattle spraying. It was difficult to ascertain the exact amount each farmer would be called upon to pay but Mr. Cockburn stated that from the rates used in other municipalities it appeared that 15 cents for the first spray and ten cents for the second was a good average.

All cattle coming into the township for approximately 30 days after the spraying commenced, would also have to be treated, it was stated.

No Change in Levy
There will be no increase in the quarter mill levy for the Federation of Agriculture, council agreed. The federation was asking that the levy be increased from one quarter to one half. This rate in 1952 amounted to $570. The figures for the surrounding municipalities were as follows:

Markham township, $2,000; Whitchurch township, $570; King township, $500; North Gwillimbury township, $250; E. Gwillimbury, $300; Georgina township, $125; Scarborough township, $200; Vaughan township, $610.

"This levy could amount to quite a snowball; I think in comparison with other townships, our amount is quite fair and I'd say no action to change," stated Deputy-Reeve Timbers.

"I'd second that motion," added Councillor Graham.

"I don't object to the half mill, but I do object to us helping pay for somebody else," said Reeve McLaughlin.

"It's a wonderful organization but we're taking up this warble fly control and I feel we shouldn't assess any more," said Councillor McCarron.

The motion to leave the levy at the quarter mill figure passed unanimously.

In a communication to council the local Agricultural Federation also asked that council consider exempting farm land up to at least 90 percent, for police and fire protection as allowed by the act. They also requested tax relief from school tax for all farm land with the exception of one acre and buildings.

Council generally felt that the fire and police protection costs were too small to warrant the extra clerical work necessary to change the taxing system.

"It would cost more to figure it out than what we pay," said Councillor McCarron. Council took no action.

easy task, it invariably makes enemies of owners of impounded dogs." However it does not appear that the impounding of dogs, and their possible loss, is such a source of grief as one might at first imagine, for the report states that "only one person in seven has enough regard for their pet to pay the $2 pound fee to reclaim it." No less than 500 animals were handled by the society at Newmarket last year.

The report was detailed and comprehensive in character and Mrs. Askew, president of the society, who submitted it is deserving of tribute. There is little doubt that the society will give a good account of itself for the present year.

Preliminary Report

Chairman of by-laws, councillor Moffat, gave a review of by-laws on hand. Among these was the Dog Control by-law number 871, which Mrs. Moffat and her committee recommended should be revised to permit of dog control all year round, rather than for the summer months only. As the recommendations were accepted by council, an amended dog control by-law will doubtless be introduced at an early date.

Nayor Rose complimented Mrs. Moffat on her report, adding that it was the first time, as far as his recollection served him, of such a preliminary by-laws report having been submitted to council. It was read in a clear voice and in a business-like manner which, with all respect, some members of council might sayfully copy.

Mrs. Moffat has already made it evident that, as chairman of by-laws, by-laws must be clearly defined to council before they are voted on and made legally effective.

JACK SMITH WRITES

Ottawa Letter

A weekly letter from the member of parliament for York North.

Finance Minister Abbott presented his eighth consecutive budget last week and in the main here in Ottawa and throughout the country it has been well received. Tax revisions and tax reductions have been welcomed as fair and reasonable and the general financial condition of our whole economic system was shown to be in a very healthy state.

As the genial Montreal member presented his eighth budget there are persistent rumors that it will be his last. Not that Mr. Abbott plans either to leave the government or public life, but there have been strong hints that after more than eight years in the strenuous and demanding finance portfolio he would transfer to another department.

In the event of such a move it is not unlikely Mr. Abbott will go to the portfolio of Minister of Justice with Hon. Stuart Garson, the present Justice Minister, taking on finance. A former Manitoba premier, Mr. Garson is very well qualified for the finance portfolio and such a change is not beyond the realm of possibility before a general election is held.

However, any such action rests with the prime minister and he has given no hint of any such intended portfolio switch. Whatever happens, despite all that has been said and written about Mr. Abbott as a master tax collector, when he does leave the finance department he will leave with an excellent record. It is conceded even by his political opponents that he has done a good job and Canada's fine economic standing throughout the world and the existing prosperity at home testify as to the soundness of his policies.

It is rather difficult to comment in an objective manner on the budget at this close date, because frankly to government members, it has been such welcome news that we are apt to be too enthusiastic about it.

The budget this year was presented some six to eight weeks earlier than usual to enable the House to conclude its business well in advance of the date of the Coronation.

In the general review of world conditions the finance minister reported that not only Canada, but all the nations of the free world are in a stronger position than a year ago to protect themselves against any possible aggressor. The North Atlantic community of nations has achieved an increase in its defensive strength.

In the economic sphere there has been a noteworthy reduction in inflationary pressures in many parts of the world. Prices of raw materials which rose sharply after the outbreak in Korea have tended to return to a more normal level.

We here in Canada over the past decade have experienced a period of growth unrivalled in our history. As a people we have become quite accustomed to annually breaking new records in production, foreign trade, investment, employment and income. Each year as a people we set our sights a little higher and we take it as a matter of fact that we will do better than we did a year ago.

Even against such a background of remarkable growth and development 1952 stands out as an exceptional year. This is all the more surprising and gratifying in that it was accomplished in the midst of a very troubled and disturbed world.

Last year Mr. Abbott based his budget on the expectation that national production would rise to $22 and a half billion. Actually his budget this week showed our national production output reached $23 billion, an increase over the previous year of more than seven percent. With prices reasonably at a stable level this year it will be seen that this increase was brought about by a greater volume of production.

In 1952 Canada's foreign trade again broke all previous records both in volume and value. A noteworthy feature of our foreign trade was the attainment of a wider distribution of market. Sales to the United Kingdom increased by about $100 million.

The finance minister pointed with justifiable pride to the record of the past six years of balanced budgets and substantial reductions in public debt. Since 1946 the government has reduced the national debt by $2,284,123,000, with an annual saving to Canadian taxpayers of more than $63 million in interest charges.

It is gratifying and a matter of satisfaction to all Canadians that the very substantial tax reductions are not something based on any thought of political expediency, but are tax reductions based on the sound basic facts of our national economy and our increased productivity and prosperity. It is a budget and a record of which all Canadians can be proud and as Mr. Abbott remarked it was a matter of special satisfaction to those who through the years had charge of the country's business.

MOUNT PISGAH

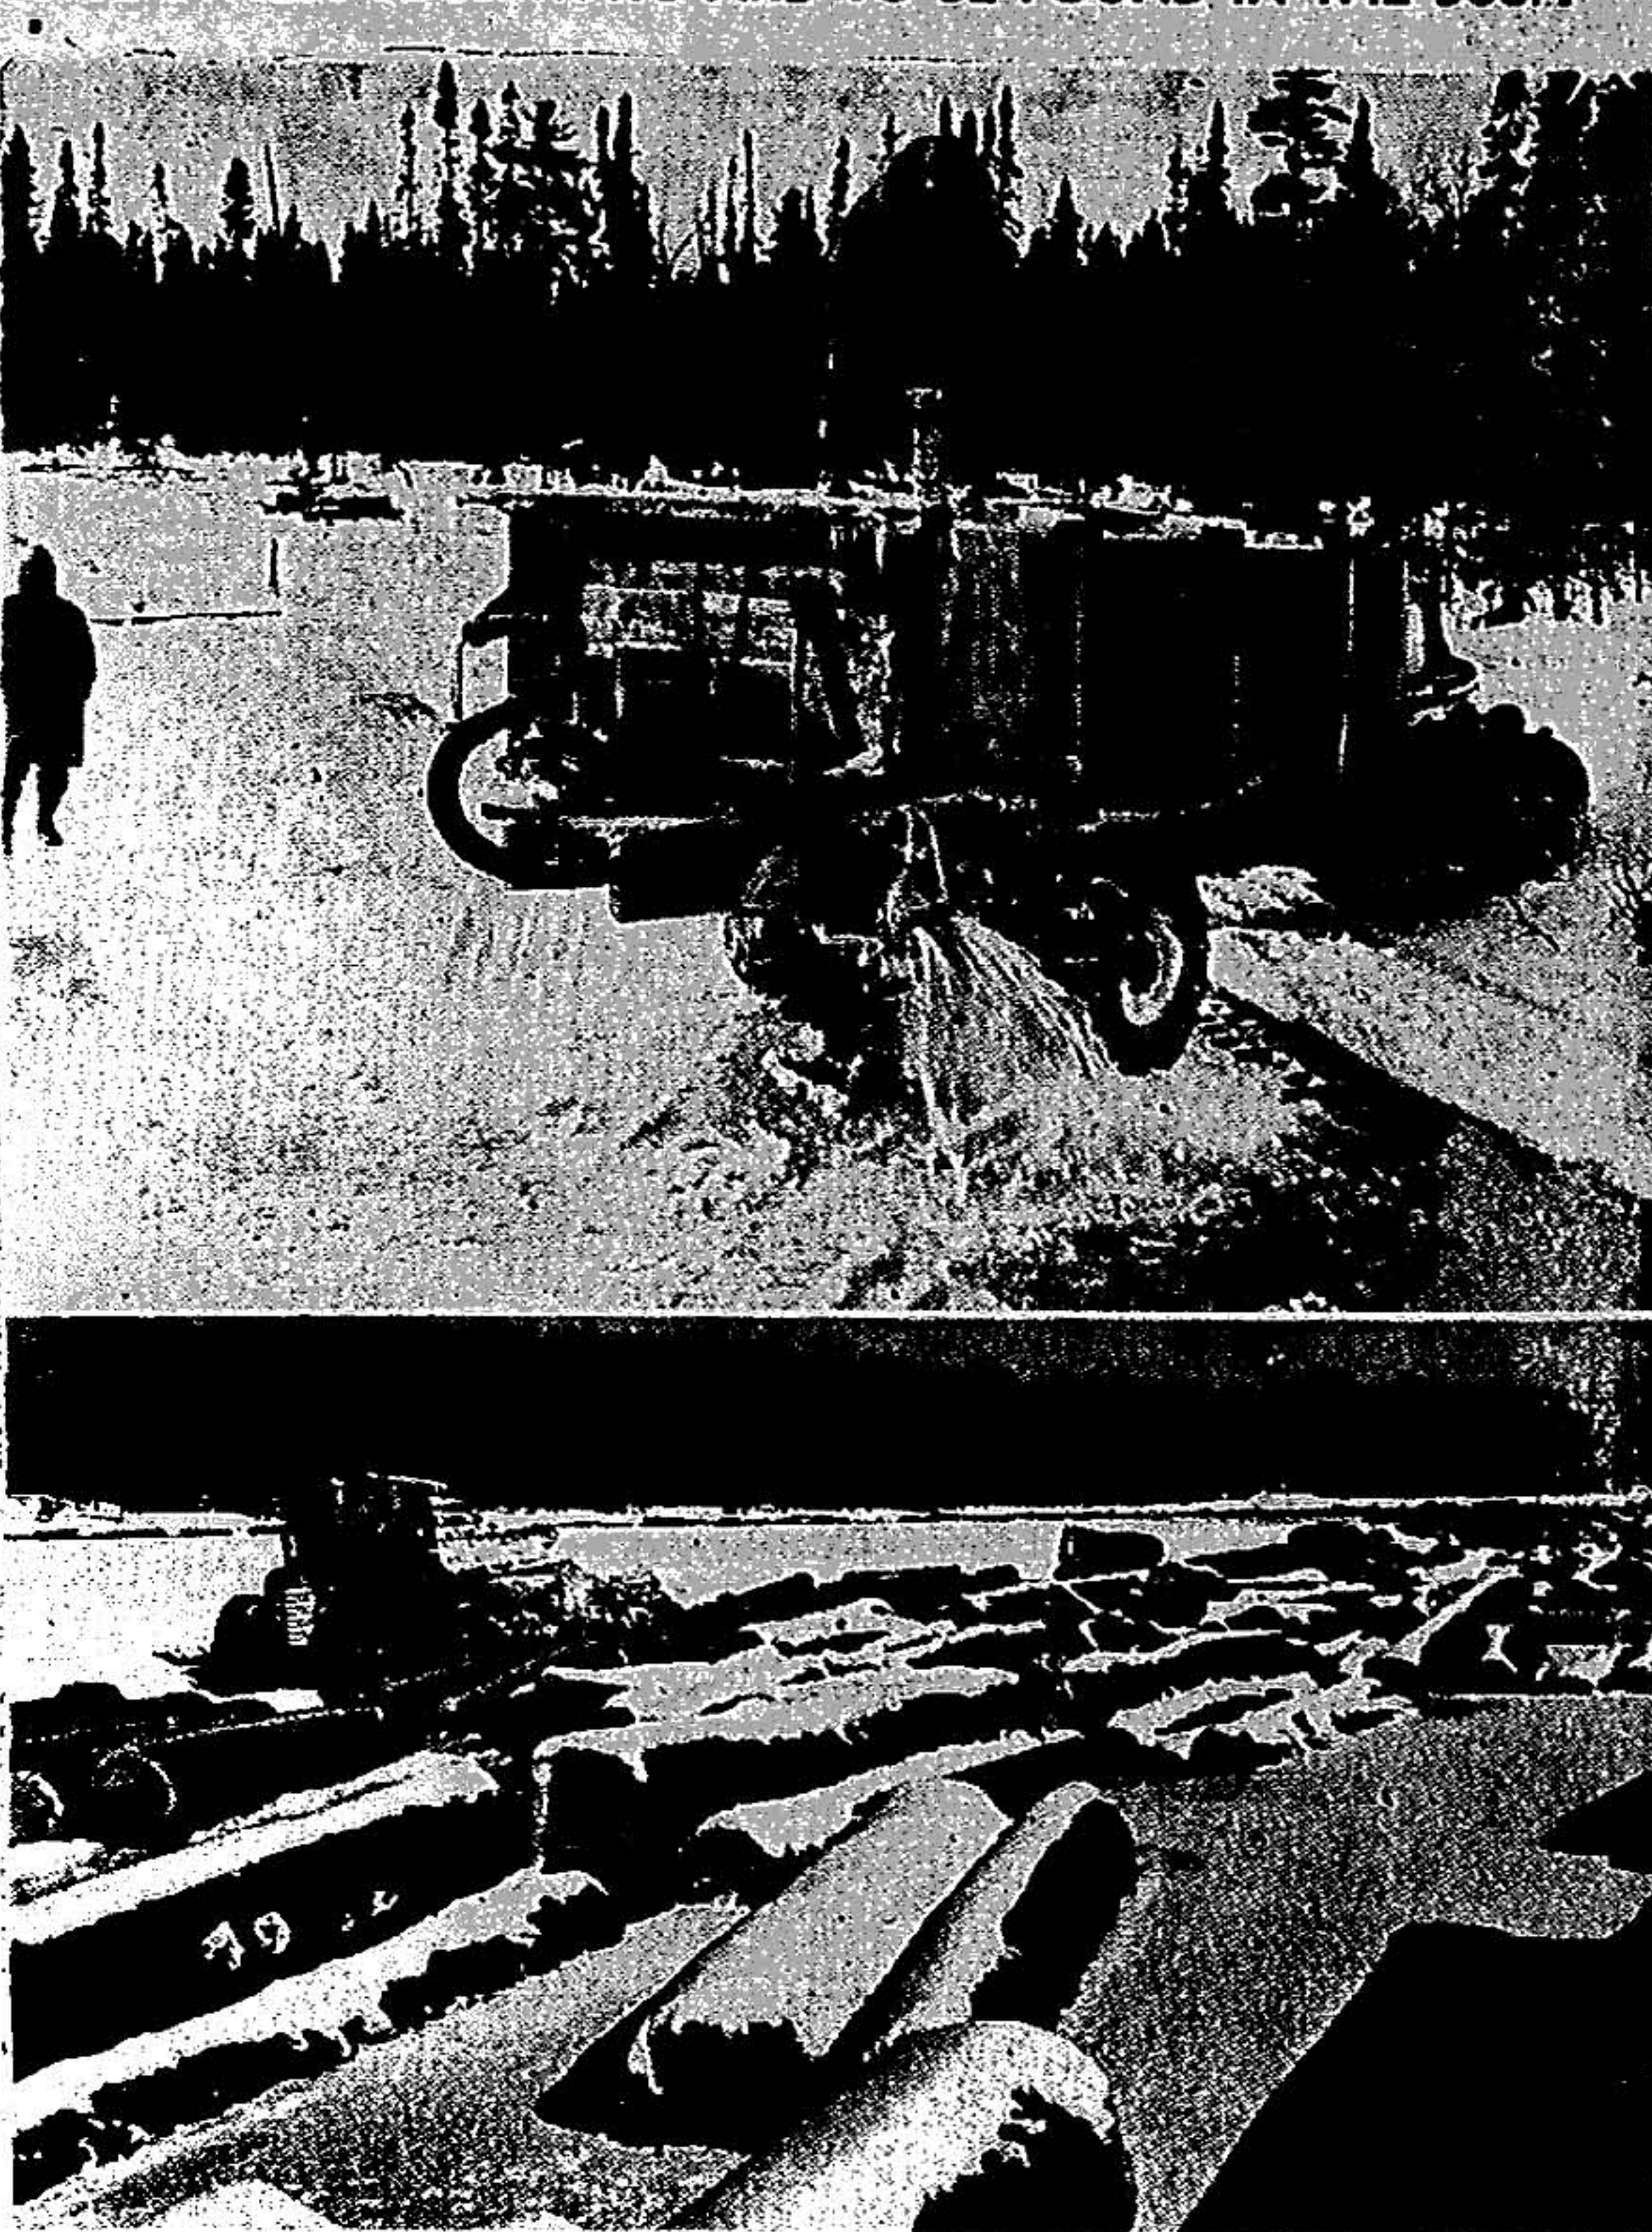

Miss Helen Boothman is a patient in St. Michael's hospital, having had the misfortune to fall and break her hip on Monday, February 9. Best wishes for a rapid recovery are extended to her.

The community was shocked to hear of the passing of Mrs. Garnet W. Lynd, wife of a former minister of this district. A number of residents of Mt. Pisgah paid their last respects over the weekend. Mrs. Lynd was buried in Spring Creek cemetery at Clarkson on Monday, Feb. 23.

SMOOTHEST HIGHWAYS ARE TO BE FOUND IN THE BUSH

While cities spend thousands of dollars to keep their streets free of ice and snow, logging companies spend money to keep the bush roads snow-packed and ice-coated. Only when there is a glass-smooth coating of ice over the road will the heavy sleighs, carrying tons of wood, slide easily from the logging areas to streams and rivers. In the Gatineau area, north of Ottawa, the logs are unloaded from sleighs at river's edge, then taken by truck, as shown above to the middle of the river and dropped on the ice to be carried downstream during the spring thaw. The truck, top, transports water to the roads carved through the woods, and to be squirted over the hard-packed snow to make a highway smoother than the best-laid concrete. The Gatineau area, after a century of logging operations, still contributes to the 13,000,000-cord total of pulpwood that is produced in Canada each year and made into paper and plastics.

Evans for the men. Many thanks to those who donated prizes.

Keep in mind the progressive euchre in Vandorf community hall on Saturday evening, Feb. 28th. It is sponsored by our Home and School who are trying to raise enough funds for a movie projector for the school. There will be croquinoile played and also a lucky door prize of a hamper of groceries. Ladies are asked to provide and everyone welcome.

Active Mt. Albert Chamber Of Commerce Holds Banquet

Tuesday evening of last week the Chamber of Commerce of Mount Albert held a banquet in the community hall when over 150 sat down to a sumptuous supper.

W. McQuaid, president, acted as toastmaster and called the meeting to order and welcomed the guests. He said that it was a community night for it brought all organizations together for better co-operation.

He introduced the leaders of each organization represented. Jack Rye, reeve of East Gwillimbury, in proposing the toast to the community, said that anyone who offers his services in the community makes a worthy sacrifice.

Dr. Carruthers responded and said the community would carry on as it had been doing and improvements would still be made. Roy Stewart held a singing contest between four country and four town men and Mr. Cockburn, Newmarket, was judge and awarded the prize to the men from the country.

Mr. Dowton, Oshawa, showed pictures of an historic highway. Mr. Harold Rose proposed the toast to the guests. Mrs. Bruce Rollins, in reply, congratulated the Chamber of Commerce on the fine work it had done since it was organized in 1949. The Chamber sponsored the Santa Claus parade and put the nances on streets.

Mr. Cockburn introduced the guest speaker, Captain W. A. Young, chaplain of Guelph college. In his remarks he said life was an eternal triangle and the three sides represented soil, self and soul. Soil was the base on which everything rests; by it we live and get our food. There is no danger of a surplus of food for one-fifth of the world is starving today, he said. Self is a heritage of freedom, the right to be yourself, and we

HOW DO YOU FEEL RIGHT NOW?

If you never know what it is to feel off-colour and "all dragged-out" then this message is not for you. But if you are like most of us and suffer those days when it's just plain drudgery to keep going... then read on. The first thing to remember is that those dull, weary, under-the-weather days are probably unnecessary. Chances are the whole trouble lies in a sluggish system that needs some help. That's where Kruschen can help. Kruschen Salts contain active principles similar to those of well-known Mineral Springs and are just what lazy kidneys need to stimulate action. Kruschen is mild and sure for common constipation too. So altogether they are just the ticket for you the very next day you wake up feeling seedy. Just a tiny dose in your morning coffee. About as much as will heap on a dime.

News for this column must be in the office Monday night. Copy must be written as briefly as possible and confined to news and reports. Other than routine reports and announcements will be printed separately.

On Thursday, Feb. 19, the regular meeting of the Mount Albert branch was held at the home of Mrs. C. Rolling with 34 members and nine visitors present. A quaint custom of other lands was the roll call.

It was decided during the business period to sponsor a fashion show on March 18. The Cancer Society requested that any material suitable for dressings be left at Mainprize's store. A donation of $5 was sent to the Navy League. We also are contributing money to obtain two waste-paper baskets for York County hospital. The branch plans to serve lunch at D. Moorehead's sale Feb. 25.

The conveners, Mrs. M. Stokes and Mrs. H. Shillinglaw, were in charge of the program. An informal interview of Mrs. Kanters, Mrs. Everts and Mrs. Ooijen, new Canadians from Holland, proved most interesting. The Dutch people eat six meals to our three each day. Their small farms of 30 acres grow more than our 100 acres. The land is more heavily fertilized to produce as much as possible.

They found Canada very different but a land of more opportunities than their homeland. They are quite happy in their new adopted country.

Mrs. Kirjavaciner, a Finnish lady, gave an interesting talk on her homeland. She revealed an interesting fact that the women of Finland were the first to receive the privilege to vote. Her birthplace is now under Russian rule.

There was an interesting display of things from Holland and Finland, wooden shoes, dishes, aprons.

Mrs. Snyder played a lovely piano solo. Following a short reading by Mrs. H. Shillinglaw, a social half hour was enjoyed.

Union Street branch will meet at the home of Mrs. L. Johnston on Thursday, March 5, at 2 p.m. Motto—"Stop a minute and say 'Hello', as down life's road you smoothly go." Reply—Mrs. Roy Cowieson. Roll call—hat speech. Topic—Public relationship and community activities.

Program committee—Mrs. E. Callender, Mrs. Roy Cowieson, Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. V. MacNaughton of Newmarket will be guest speaker. Hostesses—Mrs. W. Micks, Mrs. S. Shanks, Mrs. L. Salmon, Mrs. L. Swanson.

Sharon branch held its February meeting at Mrs. Norman Crone's home with 24 members, two visitors and seven children present. Roll call was well answered. Several humorous readings and jokes were given, also a $2 penalty went to the flower fund. $39.50 was cleared at the January euchre. Mrs. Farr and Mrs. Osler are to bring prizes for the February euchre.

Mrs. Hamilton gave an interesting demonstration on different kinds of china. Mrs. Fry gave a demonstration on lamp shades, lining a lamp shade as she talked.

The March meeting will be held in Sharon school Wednesday, March 4, at 2 p.m. Roll call; a verse from an old school reader. The program will be in charge of Mrs. H. Walker and Mrs. C. Ward, citizenship and education conveners. South end members are asked to bring a few sandwiches and the north end members cookies.

The January meeting of the Zephyr branch was the annual banquet, held again this year in Uxbridge at Martin's hotel, where about 20 members and their escorts enjoyed a lovely turkey dinner. A few hours of playing euchre in the hotel dining room brought another enjoyable evening to a close.

On February 18 the regular meeting was held in the community hall when 18 members answered the roll call. It was decided to send for six tickets to attend the A.C.W.V. in Maple Leaf Gardens August 21.

The oratorical and musical festival will be held in the community hall some time in April. Watch for the date for the schools of Zephyr and district.

The next meeting will be in the form of a St. Patrick's tea when Sandford will be our guests. Everyone in the community is welcome on March 7.

The February meeting of the Bogartown branch was held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Starr with an attendance of 23 members, four visitors and 10 children.

The motto was "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." Program was in charge of Mrs. Wm. Walker, convener of home economics and health. Roll call was "An article I keep in my medicine cabinet." Mrs. D. McCullough gave a paper on "Things a Good Mother Does and Things a Wise Mother Doesn't." An invalid tray was prepared by Mrs. W. Walker and Mrs. A. Penrose and demonstrated by Mrs. Penrose. "Measures for Home Safety" was given by Miss L. Starr, also "A Spotty Story", and quoted: "Unless you have money do nothing at all, when tempted to tamper with marks on the wall."

Mrs. Walker showed pamphlets which could be procured regarding food and health. Mrs. R. Baycroft, president of Centre York, was present and told us that the district annual will be held at Schomberg on May 27. The speaker told of the early history of the F.W.I.O., W.W.I.C. and A.C.W.V. The Associated Country Women of the World will meet in Toronto this summer. Bogartown branch made donations to the Newmarket rest room and to the flood relief.

The Belhaven branch met at the home of Mrs. Walter Kydd with 29 members, three visitors and five children present. Mrs. Erwin Winch very capably replied to the motto. After a brief business discussion in which it was decided to place penny-a-week bags in the schools, plans were made for the banquet on March 20. Mrs. Ross Stiles read a poem by Edna Jacques.

In the devastation caused by the ruinous floods in southeast England, airmen from the RCAF's No. 1 Fighter Wing at North Luffenham rescued householders and their belongings from the ravages of the sea, and filled and carried heavy sand bags to fill the great gaps in the sea dykes. Seen here at Yarmouth, Corporal Tony Rothwell, of Hamilton, Ont., and LAC Bob Morton, of Vancouver, with two unidentified RCAF officers, help evacuate families from their flood-stricken homes.

donated to the European Flood Victims Fund.

Mrs. Ray McCarron passed the material to all members for the donations to the Canadian Mental Health association which are to be brought to the next meeting. The topic on "National and International" was given by a guest speaker, Mrs. Bernard Kay, Gormley. She gave a list of names of each country represented in the A.C.W.V. and then gave an informative talk on each country pertaining to their laws and customs.

She closed her talk with every-one repeating in unison, a quotation written by Matthew Arnold. "We must feel a brotherhood with all people or else a Fatherhood of God has no meaning." Roll call was answered with a question. A lovely lunch was served by Mrs. H. Hillary, Mrs. M. van Nostrand and Mrs. C. Pattenden.

Miss McKereher, senior home economist, Inspection and Consumer service, department of Fisheries, Ottawa, was the guest speaker at the Feb. 9 meeting of the Newmarket branch. Letters to the editor are always welcome but the names of the writers must be known to the editor.

The Editor: I would like to send in one reader's unreserved approval of the general sentiments expressed in that editorial "Canada's No. 1 Problem", in which a noted Canadian executive calls for a more appropriate population for Canada. That closing paragraph should certainly be studied by all Canadians: "More people have meant more jobs not fewer, more opportunities, more stability. More people also mean more citizens to share the overhead and to participate in the defense of this vast sprawling area we call Canada."

In this connection I recall from my clipping-book a few keen lines by a Montreal writer, dealing with what he termed "That Bone-Chilling Emptiness of Western Canada", which greatly impressed me, and still do and which I would like to send along to your readers:

"Canada needs people almost more than anything else today. What is more important, however, vast areas of Canada need people much more badly than some areas of Canada which seem to be able to gobble up those who still come to this country. . . . Not only those who decide on immigration policies, but our educators too, should become aware of the variety of empires that are contained in Canada; empires, the outstanding feature of which is their tremendous and bone-chilling emptiness."

"Just as the original settlers in any land are first subsistence farmers, developing into a richer level as time and generations pass, so will these areas have to be settled by people who are satisfied with living freely, independently and modestly. There may not be many in Canada for we have been largely spoiled."

KESWICK

The next W.C.T.U. meeting will be held at Mrs. Freeman Pollock's March 3, at 8 p.m.

The World Day of Prayer service was held last Friday evening in the Christian church with members from the United and Christian churches taking part. A vocal solo was given by Mrs. Ted Marritt, and a violin solo by Mrs. B. Terry.

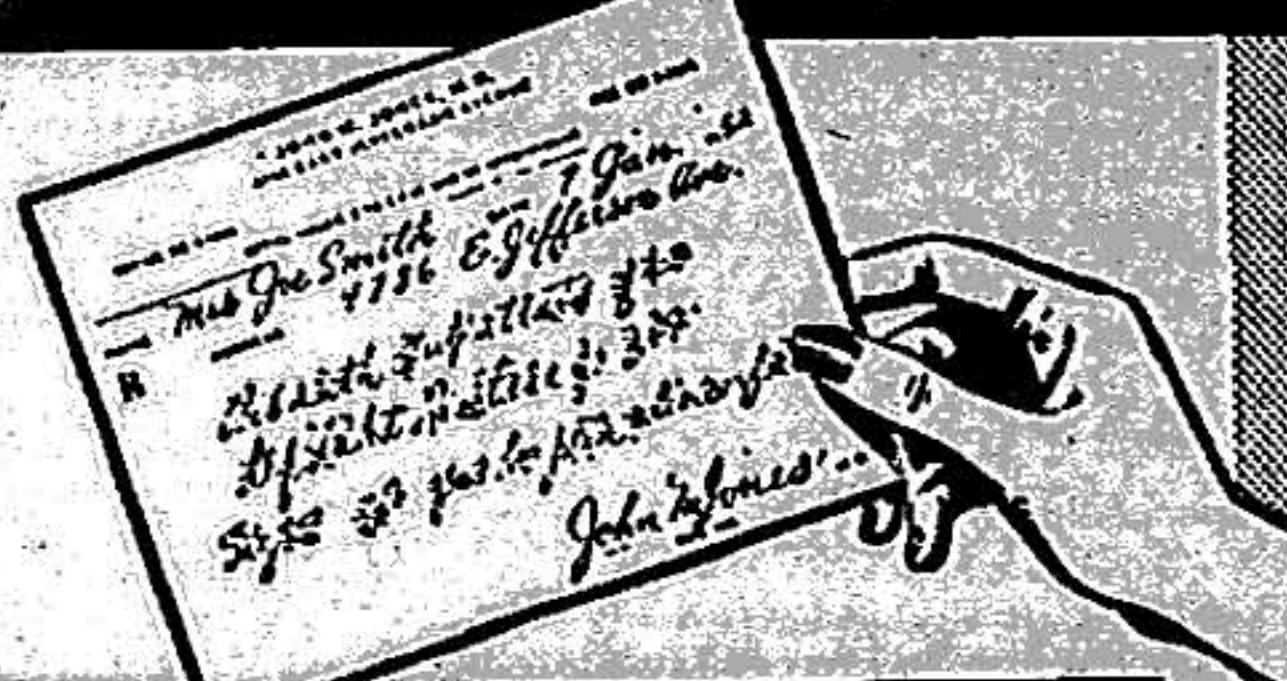

The Christian church will hold its monthly missionary meeting this Friday evening, Feb. 27.

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 25, the Dutch people in our community put on a concert in the arena with pictures and songs as thanks to the help sent from here to Holland's Relief Fund.

Gordon Barrowclough of Beaverton, displays the pelt of a brush wolf he and two other men killed on the ice of Lake Simcoe. The trio were crossing the ice in a truck when they spotted the wolf. Barrowclough climbed into the back of the truck and the chase was on. As they neared the animal Barrowclough was able to run it with a cant-hook.

Bell Sees Greater Spending In 1952; More Telephones Here

A total of $35,300,000 was expended by the Bell Telephone Company of Canada for new construction in Ontario and Quebec during 1952, the highest amount for a single year in its history, according to the company's 73rd annual report, mailed to shareholders.

During the year, 136,373 telephones were added to the company's system, bringing the total number in service to 1,978,123, the report, signed by Frederick Johnson, president, states. There were even more new applicants for service than in 1951 but the total of 58,354 unfilled orders at the end of the year was the lowest at any year-end since 1945.

Commenting on the report, Mr. C. E. Bosdale, Bell manager for this region, said that 110 telephones were added in Newmarket during 1952, bringing the number in service to 2,413 and leaving 15 unfilled orders at the year-end.

The report notes that there is still a heavy demand for service that must be met as quickly as possible.

Net income for the year amounted to $2.47 a share, compared with $2.08 a share in 1951. The usual $2 dividend was paid and an amount equivalent to 47 cents a share was added to the surplus which, the report states, is still far below an adequate amount in relation to the company's capital and magnitude of operations.

Total revenues increased by 16 percent over 1951 to $186,569,332 and total operating expenses were 10 percent higher at $126,559,114. After providing $30,342,000 for taxes, $18,272,437 for dividends and $7,097,868 for fixed charges, $4,297,913 was added to the surplus. Total taxes represented an amount equivalent to $15.91 a telephone, or $3.32 a share of stock.

The number of shareholders increased by 17,339 during the year to 100,890, nearly four times as many as there were seven years ago. Ownership of the company continues to be predominantly Canadian and shareholders living in Canada control velops an esprit de corps among its members. Perhaps it is the uniformity of motion of the bows of the violinists, violists and cellists and the blending of tonal effect in brass and woodwind, while the baton of the conductor draws all into harmonious whole and the piano gives support. Perhaps it is all these or none of them, but the feeling of fellowship is there.

COMMON ROUND

Archie and I look forward to the rehearsals with delight and I think this feeling is common to all the members. I know it is to those of us whom Rita Peever so kindly transports to and from rehearsals.

We asked Mrs. Bosdale, who is assistant pianist to Mrs. Rowatt, if she could see a marked advance. She asserted that she could as did Mrs. Harold Jackson and Doctor Rose.

At intermission, Dr. Rose gave a delightful speech, reviewing the birth of the idea which has developed into the present symphony and gives promise of going on and on.

Dr. Rose spoke of the pleasure it was giving to every player, from the president, John Sisman, to the latest recruit and he also spoke of the unwearied efforts of Rod Smith to make this a more than worthwhile adventure in music. He appealed to lovers of music, either through organizations or through personal donations, to support this effort. His talk was certainly appreciated by the orchestra.

We in the orchestra, feel that if we give our best, this effort is bound to come to what we hope it will, a source of pleasure and profit to players and listeners.

We have one connection with the Toronto Symphony orchestra; our timpani player, Mr. Speck, is also a percussion player in it. We have one thing, we of the orchestra, which makes for success; our hearts are in it. (I wish to add, in conclusion, that the women of the United church served a very delightful lunch at the end of the concert.)

Better Accommodation Sought for Bathing At Lake Wilcox

Mr. Fred Hope, appearing for the Wilcox Lake ratepayers before Whitchurch township council recently, asked that more free accommodation be provided for township cottagers at Wilcox Lake. "It seems to me all we have over there is fences," said Mr. Hope.

He told council that he had been unsuccessful in making arrangements to meet Mrs. Percy Ash, proprietor of the local beach. Last year residents were allowed free access to this beach, which is private property, on week days up until Saturday noon but not on Sunday or holidays.

"Who do you think should keep up these beaches? I think if the people want the privilege of using this beach which has been developed by private enterprise, they should expect to pay for it; that's the way I've always found it," said Reeve McLaughlin.

Councillor McCarron promised the ratepayers' spokesman that he would see that the matter was followed up and council would try and reach an amicable settlement with both the residents and the beach owner.

CONDUCTS EXAMS IN NEWMARKET

Mr. Samuel J. Dolin, member of the faculty of the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto will conduct current examinations for the Conservatory in Newmarket, on February 28.

One of the charter members of the newly formed Canadian League of composers, Montreal-born Samuel Dolin studied piano in Montreal and Toronto, and later in Denver and San Francisco with the well-known teacher, E. Robert Schmitz.

For several years he was on the teaching staff of Trinity College, Port Hope and at the same time served as school Music Supervisor for the counties of Durham and Northumberland.

During the last five years, Mr. Dolin has devoted an increasing amount of time to the composition of orchestral works, chamber works and a number of pieces for the piano. In 1951 he performed his piano sonata before the International Federation of Music Studies at Yale University.

Samuel Dolin was accorded the rare distinction of having his "Serenade for Strings" performed on the Finnish National Radio at the 1952 Olympiad in Helsinki. His work was the only non-Finnish one performed although selection had been submitted from all countries participating in the Olympics.

Year's Greatest Event For Guides, Brownies, Annual Banquets Held

The annual mother and daughter banquets of the Newmarket Guides and Brownies were held under the auspices of the Girl Guide Local association on Thursday and Friday, Feb. 19 and 20. Catering for the banquets was the Scout-Guide Mothers' auxiliary with Mrs. Bert Budd as convener.

Guest speaker at the Brownie banquet was Miss Margaret Potter, Toronto, a staff member of the Ontario Provincial Headquarters who has been an active leader in Brownie and Guide work for over 12 years. Miss Potter told the Brownies of her trip to England where she visited a Brownie company and represented Canada at Commonwealth meetings.

Mrs. D. R. Gunn, Oak Ridge, commissioner of York Division, was the guest speaker the following night at the Guide banquet. Mrs. Gunn told the girls and their mothers of the Guide tribute planned as a gift to Queen Elizabeth on her coronation in June, 1953.

Aiken pronounced the grace and later spoke of the wonderful training such Christian youth movements were providing for local youngsters. Mr. Dales added his words of congratulation to the organization.

Brownies presented a short program for their mothers and guests. Piano solos were given by Jeanne Hines and Lynda Koshel. Sheila Walker performed the Highland Fling and a vocal duet by Marilyn Wess and Anne Bradley and a solo by Carol Graham completed the program which ended with the singing of the Brownie Taps. The toast to scouting was by Jane Edwards with the response being made by Horace Jaques. Eleanor Smith made the toast to the Mothers' auxiliary and the local association with Mrs. Sinclair replying and Mrs. Thompson gave a report on the year's activities.

The Scout hall had been decorated attractively by the Guides and Brownies with blue and yellow streamers. These colors were used in the table decorations which included yellow daffodils with pussy willows and blue iris. Place cards and colorful serviettes were used.

A presentation was made by Miss Potter to Anne Bradley on behalf of the Brownies. Anne left for Jamaica with her parents on Sunday. The following evening, Mrs. Gunn presented Gold Cord Guide, Shirley Wess, with a gift from the local association, the Guides and Brownies. Shirley, the only Guide in York Division to have earned a Gold Cord, has been assisting in the leadership with both the Guide company and the Brownie pack and it was in recognition for her work as well as the achievement of having won her Gold Cord that the presentation was made. Needlecraft News by Pauline Roy

AS THE HOLIDAY SEASON draws near, you often wonder what you can make for gifts that will be appreciated and at the same time take only a little of your precious time. Crocheting gifts is often the answer to this problem because you can make some very beautiful things that are inexpensive and, what is even more important, they can be made quickly. You can make your gifts entirely of crochet or use it as a trimming for articles already sewn. There are pretty edgings for handkerchiefs, napkins, pillow cases in all white or from a choice of many lovely colors. Gay potholders for the kitchen or hot plate mats for the table also make welcome gifts. No matter what you choose to make, you can be certain your gift will be very much appreciated and used for many months to come.

Crochet is Popular

It is interesting to note that in our modern world the appreciation for hand-crafts has been for many years. Centuries ago it was necessary for women to be expert needleworkers, but today women do it by choice and preference. Another trend of our times is that we can not buy the same article for less money already made and we have found it is better made when made at home. So the modern home-maker is wisely turning out high fashion garments and exquisite articles for her home. She likes lace tablecloths in her dining room and on her tea table. Lace trimmed place mats and doilies are also among her favorite home decorations. The revival of lace has found its place in fashions as well. This year a crocheted lace jacket worn over a slim skirt is a rich and beautiful costume. Lace stoles are also popular... they're so feminine and becoming.

Washcloth Edgings

Dainty edgings are pretty on towels and washcloths. You can choose a bright colored cloth and trim it with a contrasting color — towels too can be decorated in the same manner. If you would like to have a leaflet with directions for crocheting these four edgings, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper and ask for WASHCLOTH EDGINGS, Leaflet No. S-143.

Club Studies Improvements For Milk Plant Operations

A club unique in the annals of the Ontario milk industry has been formed at Barrie to study means of further improving milk plant operations.

Comprising some 100 employees and managers of dairy plants located between Newmarket and Parry Sound, the new Dairy Club will meet at regular intervals to give employees, managers and owners a better understanding of the fluid milk distributing industry in their district. Discussions will cover plant sanitation, milk weighing, receiving, testing, dairy bacteriology and other production techniques.

The idea originated with Herman Cauters, plant superintendent of Lakeview Dairy, Barrie, who, with the help of a few managers and employees from other dairies, organized the initial meeting of the club. It was agreed that the company managers would bear the costs of transportation and other nominal expenses involved.

According to Ontario Dairy Commissioner Everett M. Biggs, who was guest speaker at the initial meeting, employees and management alike are most enthusiastic about the idea. "While it is seldom realized by the consuming public," he said, "milk companies throughout Ontario are constantly striving to further improve methods of processing and distributing milk."

"Some companies have instituted profit-sharing plans, while others hold regular meetings between management and employees. But this is the first time that plant personnel, milkmen, managers and owners from a number of dairies have formed together in a club to discuss mutual problems. It is an idea with ample merit and one which should prove advantageous to the consumers in that district."

The newly-elected executive of the Dairy Club include: president, Herman Cauters, Lakeview; vice-president, Dell Turnbull, Aurora; secretary-treasurer, Reg Glass, Newmarket. The program committee consists of Geo. Sproule, Stayner; Bob Hodge, Midland; Lawrence Fortior, Orillia, and Fred Cousins, Aurora. Those on the associate committee are Thos. Rank, W. Kinsey, Barrie, and Don MacDonald, Gravenhurst.

Largest 305 Day Record Since 1938

Mae Gerben Renown, a purebred Holstein owned by F. Trebble, Queensville, has recently completed the largest 305-day twice-a-day milking milk record made in Canada since 1938 and the second highest of all time. Starting on test as a five-year-old she produced 23,894 lbs. of milk containing 807 lbs. of fat.

As a four-year-old, Mae gave 21,599 lbs. of milk containing 693 lbs. of fat in 305 days on 2x which is the third largest record ever completed in that class in Canada and as a three-year-old she completed the Honor List record of 18,157 lbs. of milk and 585 lbs. of fat, also in 305 days on 2x.

In her current lactation, Mae seems to be away to a still larger record, her production having reached 111½ lbs. for a single day on twice-a-day milking.

Mae is a grand-daughter of the $14,100 Montvic Renown who topped the Trailand Dispersal back in 1942.

Police Chief's Reminder Notes Law Often Broken

"Accident reports show that in three out of four fatal traffic accidents a traffic law was broken," according to Chief Constable Byron Burbridge, Newmarket. "If all drivers obeyed the traffic laws, we would be well on the way to a perfect traffic safety record."

"Too many drivers wilfully disobey the traffic laws. They get in the habit of breaking the law in little, but serious, ways. They park 'for just a minute' in a no parking area, or fail to stop at a through street."

"This disregard for traffic laws leads to more serious crimes such as speeding. Yes, speeding is a crime."

"Too many drivers think an extra five or 10 miles an hour, even within town or city limits, or in a school zone, is not important. They think it's their special privilege to go as fast as they like. And too often they get into accidents. If someone is killed, they see the mistake of their selfishness too late. A dead child, or man or woman cannot be brought back to life."

"Traffic laws are enacted and enforced to help make the streets and highways safer for everyone. The laws are simple. It is up to everyone to know them and obey them."

"We regard a driver who breaks the traffic laws as a menace, not only to himself, but to his passengers and others."

"This is not just an opinion. It is a cruel fact. Last year, 1,010 persons were killed in traffic accidents in Ontario. Of these the largest group was passengers, more than one third of the fatalities. Pedestrians were next, then drivers.

"My job and the job of my fellow police officers, is to help put a stop to the selfish actions of citizens who deliberately break the laws."

"Last year my force apprehended 2,546 drivers for breaking traffic laws. Of these, 2,358 were convicted in court."

"This year, we are being even more vigilant. Now is the time for all drivers to make sure they know the traffic laws, and to make up their minds to obey them."

"To those who neglect or disobey the traffic laws, I can only say, 'You're asking for trouble.'"

Minister Urges Orderly Pattern In The Marketing Of Cattle

Speaking at the annual meeting of the Western Stock Growers Association in Calgary recently, the Rt. Hon. James G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, urged producers to follow an orderly pattern in marketing finished cattle and cautioned that unseasonable selling of which there is now some evidence, could only have a depressing effect on present markets and could lead to shortages later in the season.

Mr. Gardiner stated that since January first, 53 per cent of the cattle marketed in inspected slaughtering plants had graded Red or Blue brand, compared to 43 per cent for the same period last year. This indicated a heavier marketing of finished cattle than normal during the early part of the year.

He drew an analogy between the present apparent trend in cattle marketings and that which occurred with hogs in the latter part of December. Heavy hog marketings then had led to a shortage of pork in early January and in some instances prices had been higher than they were in December.

The minister pointed out that a similar appeal to the United States cattle producers to follow an orderly marketing pattern had been made recently by the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra T. Benson. Mr. Benson had emphasized that the U.S. economy is fundamentally strong with employment and incomes at a high level and that this promises more stability in cattle prices. Mr. Gardiner said the same fundamental considerations applied to the Canadian situation. Following Mr. Benson's statement there had been a significant drop in the previously heavy U.S. cattle market-

(Continued from page three) ability to adjust to and her need of a group-living experience. During a girl's stay at Warrendale the caseworker plans with the placing-agency for the time when she will be leaving the institution.

A Satisfying Program

Everything that happens at Warrendale from performing household chores and doing homework to arranging a party and going swimming is considered program. Activities are discussed and planned at meetings of staff and girls in line with their interest.

For successful treatment of each girl's difficulty, the staff attempts to make therapeutic use of group activities and individual contacts. With adolescence, a rebellious period for the most normal child, one of the best ways to get at problems is through interests. Therefore a constructive and happy program is the focal point of treatment.

Girls attend their local church on Sundays; when possible they take part in church and other community organizations. They are also encouraged to bring their friends home to Warrendale for after-school activities and holiday events.

A Worthy Project

Warrendale's budget is financed very largely through the Community Chest of Greater Toronto. The agencies who place girls pay a certain amount for their care, also allowance for clothing and for weekly spending and any medical bills. A small proportion of the budget is received from the provincial government and from church and private donations. Capital expenditures are outside the policy of the Community Chest and money for such must be raised by the Board through its own efforts.

Warrendale is, by its nature, an expensive social agency, but only by having a skilled staff, a limited clientele and an attractive setting can it function effectively.

In this regard a comparatively short "exposure" to Warrendale may help an unhappy and disturbed girl in a way that a much longer period of less intensive care under other circumstances could never do. Money spent wisely on adolescents is an investment of great benefit to the whole community.

"OPERATION ALUMINUM"

KITIMAT ...half way

The first stage of the big aluminum development at Kitimat — 400 miles north of Vancouver — is moving ahead on schedule. KENNEY DAM is finished and water is rising in the 350-square-mile lake it is creating. The ten-mile TUNNEL, with a drop sixteen times that of Niagara Falls, is now driven about one-half of the way through the mountain toward the half-completed KEMANO POWERHOUSE. Rock miners, working under a mile-high mountain, are carving out the way for the installation of three 150,000 h.p. generators. TRANSMISSION LINE work is well advanced; the fifty miles of right-of-way between Kemano and Kitimat has been cleared and many of the 250 towers erected. The SMELTER is steadily rising in the cleared forest site. Target date for the first pour of aluminum is spring, 1954. Operation Aluminum in British Columbia is on schedule!

PERIBONKA ...nearing completion

The new CHUTE DU DIABLE powerhouse on the Peribonka River, in the Saguenay district, is in full operation. Its five 55,000 h.p. generators are now feeding power to Alcan's smelters in the Saguenay valley. CHUTE-A-LA-SAVANNE, downstream from Chute du Diable, is also rapidly approaching the day when all five of its generators will add 270,000 h.p. to the Saguenay power network. ISLE MALIGNE smelter addition is now in production and its full capacity is available for civilian and defense needs. In 1953, Alcan's four smelters in the Province of Quebec will produce over 1 billion pounds of aluminum ingot for the markets of the free world.

Too long under a bushel

Here's a man who does a great deal to benefit his fellow-citizens. Yet for a long time he's been "hiding his light under a bushel."

Anyone looking up Main Street, for instance, might never guess that he had a hand in establishing some of its fine new stores, hotels, office or apartment buildings. But he has.

Not would many people realize that they may have him to thank in part for their homes. Or for the pure water that flows from the faucets. Or the electricity that serves them so many ways at the flick of a switch.

Every week workers take home pay from industries that this man helped to develop. But they're unaware of his connection with their jobs.

He even has an influence on his fellow-citizens' health and the length of their lives!

Who is he?

He's the typical life insurance policyholder — a man who might be any one of millions of Canadians. And it is through investments of his premium money that he helps create public works, homes and industries in their communities. Life insurance money is also contributed to medical research projects seeking to banish deadly diseases.

So, if you own life insurance, get out from under that bushel — and take a bow!

By making use of Canada's abundant, low-cost power, this Canadian enterprise has created employment and income for tens of thousands: for the men who build and operate the dams and powerhouses, the docks and smelters and power lines it needs; and for the more than one thousand independent Canadian companies who turn aluminum into countless forms important to industry and our own daily living.

King City And District

Mrs. Laura Rolling, Phone 8, correspondent

Dennis Winter, a former King boy, has communicated with Miss E. Dennis, principal of King City school, that he would be glad to receive letters from the folks at King, telling him of the happenings in the community. He was a student at the local school for some time. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Winter, who moved to Angus. His request is common among the fighting forces in that country. Private letters are most appreciated as there is a touch of individual and homelike atmosphere and they tell of the family doings, just what a soldier wants to hear.

Sailor Writes to W.I.

A ditty bag that went to an unknown Canadian sailor in December, 1951, has brought reward to King City W.I. Miss Doris Patton, then secretary of the branch, has just received an interesting letter from Charles L. Hainstock, Tokyo, who signs himself "A pleased sailor". The Institute had forwarded $5 to the Navy League and apparently, when a sailor's ditty bag was packed, the name of the King Institute was enclosed. In appreciation of the gift, the sailor expressed his gratitude. He is a young married man from Vancouver with two children and entered the navy service in 1941. He described the beautiful city of Tokyo, Hiroshima and the agricultural industry in rural parts of Japan. At some length, the writer told of the traditional method of farming the rice fields.

Reports Presbyterian Annual

A report of the West Presbyterian W.M.S. annual was given by Mrs. R. Farren, delegate to the St. Andrew's society, at the home of Mrs. W. Finch recently. Mrs. Alma Cheyne, presbyterian treasurer, told the large gathering held in St. Paul's church, Toronto, that allocations had gone "over the top". Mrs. Harry Wood, supply secretary, voiced her appreciation of valuable bales contributed by auxiliaries, making a total value of $3,366.35.

Outlook Bright for Churches
The outlook for the coming year is bright, with every prospect for an eventful year ahead, Rev. D. C. Wotherspoon told the Eversley congregation at the annual meeting held at the manse recently. "The three-point charge has been raised in status and is nearing the point of being self-sustained," he added.

He asked that the session be advised of any situation requiring attention. The Sunday school attendance has increased to a high of 15, with Miss Carol Norrad at the head in the fall and Mrs. Jack Whalley an energetic teacher. The C.G.T., led by Miss Norrad, is an outstanding group of seven girls who play an important part in the church community.

In all other departments, the W.M.S. and W.A. programs have brought results and new memberships.

Meet New Inspector

King township teachers became well acquainted with Mr. Maynard Hallman, the new public school inspector, at an afternoon meeting held at Schomberg hall on Feb. 19. Mr. Hallman told the group something of his background. He had been on the staff of Hamilton Normal school before taking the inspectorship. He seemed anxious to co-operate with the teaching staff.

Mr. Gateskill, director of Ontario school art, will visit the teachers' association in March. Vaughan township teachers will meet with the King township group to hear Mr. Gateskill.

On Wednesday evening, March 4, Strange school, S. S. 4, will observe Education Week. Parents and ratepayers of the section will see the student's work on display. Educational films will be shown and there will be a short entertainment, followed by light refreshments. Miss Betty Climpson is principal of the school. Proceeds will be donated to the Junior Red Cross. Twin daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Winstall (nee Mary Regan) at Toronto. The little girls are the first grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Regan, 5th line.

A spring fashion show will be sponsored on Wednesday evening, March 4, by King City W.I. in McDonald and Wells hall at 8 p.m., when six adults and eight children, all local personalities, will model the clothing provided by a group of Newmarket merchants. There will be prizes for the adults, drawn on the admission ticket numbers.

Miss Pat Deane, King telephone operator, is working at the Cooksville exchange this week, after which she will have three weeks holiday before going to Toronto to continue with the Bell Telephone Co.

Life Memberships

James Patton, a charter member of Lake Marie and King Athletic Association, founded in 1921, and Andrew McClure were created life members in the Lake Marie and King Athletic Association at a recent meeting of the organization. This honor was bestowed upon them for their faithful services and untiring interest in the promotion and welfare of the association.

Plans were made on Feb. 17 for a field day on Dominion Day. There will be a sports program when $25 and $15 cash prizes will be given to winners of a men's softball and a ladies' softball tournament.

The association also agreed to accept an offer from John Dew to take his barn on the Kingsview property and to convert it into a building suitable for ice skating, dancing and general purposes. It would be built on the east side of Memorial Park.

It is the intention of the association to have the pavilion ready for the Dominion Day carnival and dance. It would be winterized in time, placed on a cement block foundation, conforming to township building by-laws, officials say.

"Windup Lodge"

Mr. R. H. McLeod plans to use the small cottage at the rear of his property on King St. as a summer cottage for persons requiring a holiday residence. When Mr. Bainbridge was the occupant, he named it "Windup Lodge" because of the catch of wind that blew across the railway tracks to the northern exposure.

Speaks to Lions

Rev. M. R. Jenkinson was the guest speaker at King City Lions on Feb. 17 when Civic Night was observed. Village trustees D. M. Findlay, R. D. McLeod and W. F. Hood, secretary-treasurer, were guests. Trustee Carson was absent.

"A Parson Looks at Life" was the topic of Mr. Jenkinson's address, when he was introduced by Lion Wilbert Jennings. "Being a parson is a serious business," said the speaker. "He has to account to the people of his charge and to measure up to God's standard. He has to be understood on Sunday and during the week." A plea for the quality of understanding on the part of the individual, the home and the nation, was stressed.

The aims and objects of Lionism can provide wide scope of understanding of others and their problems, he said. Mr. Jenkinson was thanked by Lion Gordon Orr for his talk.

MAN WHO DOES IT SAYS HOUSEKEEPING IS "TOUGH"

It's papa who pays—and when mother is on jury duty, papa looks after the children, the housekeeping and the shopping. And here is one papa who doesn't like any part of the whole deal, Cecil Russell of North Bay, Ont. Mrs. Russell is serving on a jury hearing the murder charge against Wilfred Laycock in the death of Arthur Kierstead a year ago. Mr. Russell has taken on the job of looking after Kenneth, four, Jane, three, Peggy, six, Jimmie, seven, and Teddy, one. And he is man enough to admit he never realized housekeeping was so much work.

Lions Fergus Lawson, John Parsons, John Dew and Jack Thompson formed a vocal quartette. King City W.I. served the Lions hot supper, arranged by Mrs. Stan Hunter. The club has realized $90 for the Flood Relief Fund, $58 of that subscribed through receptacles placed in the village. These will remain on hand for contributions for another week or so.

As In Days Of Yore

A new effort on the part of King City Lions will be staged on March 12, in the basement of King United church, 6 p.m., when an oyster supper will be staged by members, with proceeds going towards community work. Tickets are now available from Lions.

In days of yore, an oyster-supper was tops in popularity. You could have all you wanted for 50 cents, and organizations like the Lennox club, Laskay Temperance Society, the Protection Society, the Masonic Lodge, went all out for oysters and entertainment.

Cancer Dressings

Interest in making cancer dressings is progressing very quickly as Miss Kay Clark organizes neighborhood groups to participate in this worthy cause.

Last week 15 ladies met at her home, folding and sewing over 100 dressings in a couple of hours, followed by light refreshments. Miss Clark and Mrs. I. L. Scott had the material readied for folding. This week, Mrs. A. E. Kelley opened her home to east-end neighbors and others have offered to ask their neighbors. As the need for dressings is recognized, the small group project will be able to produce a volume of work which is turned into the Aurora unit, with which King district is associated.

Scouts Parents' Night

The date of Scouts and Cubs Parents' Night has been advanced to Monday, March 9, to be held at the United church. Mrs. Betty Smith, district cub mistress, and Cecil Smith, her husband, district scoutmaster, Richvale, will be present. There will be a short period relating to the regular instruction received by the boys, in demonstration form. Refreshments will be served. The gathering will be held at 7.30.

World Day of Prayer

The theme of the World Day of Prayer Service, "Walk as Children of Light" was held on the first day of Lent, Feb. 20. The service was prepared for world women through the cooperation of African Christians, holding special significance, in that Africa is a troubled land, and Christian fortitude is needed.

At King City United church, nearly 60 women, representing six congregations, gathered under the chairmanship of Mrs. T. L. Williams, representing Eversley Presbyterian women who were in charge of the service. Mrs. Williams was assisted by leaders Mrs. Alfred Gillham, King Anglican, Mrs. M. R. Jenkinson, president of King City United W.M.S., Mrs. Maurice Beynon, St. John's Anglican at Oak Ridges, Mrs. William Hudson, Temperanceville United church and Mrs. W. E. Smalley, Bethel Baptist group. Mrs. Arnold Peter sang "I Walked Today, Where Jesus Walked". Mrs. Ewart Patton was organist.

Mrs. W. E. Smalley was guest speaker introducing a short history of the promotion of the World Day of Prayer in Canada. Mrs. Smalley gave her interpretation of the meaning of the theme, "Walk as Children of Light".

Same Tax Rate In King City Set 12 Mills For Third Year

The 1953 mill rate has been set at 12 mills on an assessment of $224,780 for the police village of King City. The 12-mill rate will provide a levy of $2,700 for village purposes. This is the same tax rate as in 1952 on an assessment of $211,415 which gave a levy of $2,536.98, for general purposes. In 1952 the rate was also 12 mills.

At a meeting of village trustees on Monday night, a draft budget of $3,090 was approved, the first budget ever drawn up by trustees. It provides for an $800 deficit left over from last year, the whole of over $1,600 being divided over a 2-year period.

Watermain Contracting

For the protection of the village authorities and householders, the matter of a watermain and water service by-law will be further studied by village trustees, in consultation with municipalities where waterworks systems are established. It was proposed that a watermain contractor be bonded by a deposit of $500 to carry out further work in the village.

"We must control those who make the watermain connections," said secretary W. F. Hood. "There is now no sure way of preventing people from digging a hole in the side of the road and putting water connections in," chairman D. M. Findlay declared.

"The contractor would be subject to the deposit and the terms of the contract."

Dissatisfaction with the manner in which some of this work has been conducted by a contractor has urged trustees to provide against work left undone or work improperly carried out. Trustees foresee village population expansion and the probability of subdivision development. The results of exploring what is being done in neighboring districts will be brought to the trustee meeting in March.

Trustees approved a motion that that the council of King township be asked to "officially advise" what streets in the Kingsview subdivision have been approved for registration. Council is also to be advised that no action has been taken by N. V. Lee of 3842 Bathurst St., Toronto correcting an open excavation at the east end of Dew street. Township clerk, H. G. Rose had written to Mr. Lee stipulating correction of the hazard.

Organization Proposed

On a proposal by trustee R. H. McLeod, all businessmen, retail and otherwise, will be invited to attend the March meeting of village trustees to consider forming a business men's organization for the village.

TEACHERS' FEDERATION

The Women Teachers' Federation for Newmarket met at the King George school on Wednesday, Feb. 18 to continue their study on child psychology. After a brief business discussion, Miss Sprague of the K.G.S. gave a helpful talk on the seven-year-old behavior profile.

Miss Sprague stated that the seven-year-old goes into lengthening periods of calmness and of self-absorption during which he works his impressions over and over, oblivious to the outer world. It is a time for salting down accumulated experiences and for relating new experiences to the old.

Each behavior trait was presented to the group in a most interesting way. The teachers enjoyed a light lunch before the meeting adjourned.

CROP MEETINGS

Last week, the weekly meeting of the York County Soil and Crop Improvement series featured soils and drainage with Mr. Thos. Lane, soil fieldman, as special speaker, and a soil conservation film.

Agricultural Representative W. M. Cockburn discussed 110 drainage briefly and pointed out the provision for financial assistance in drainage work. This week is devoted to potatoes. The meetings are held at Newmarket and run from 1.45 sharp to 4 p.m.

The Silage Day, booked for Wednesday, March 4, has been changed to Friday, March 6, in the Newmarket town hall. The speaker will be Mr. George McLaughlin of Elmcroft Farms, Oshawa.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Gladys Parker

A deep sense of mourning settled on the King community when word was received of the sudden death of Mrs. Gladys Parker, R. N., on Sunday, Feb. 22. She succumbed to a heart attack while on duty at Humber Memorial hospital, Weston, where she was assistant supervisor of nurses. The medical and nursing staff were shocked when she failed to revive from medical aid. She was in normal health at the time of the seizure, passing away a half hour later.

Mrs. Parker was the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Folliott, King City and was born on the fifth concession, King township. She attended Kinghorn school and Aurora high school. After graduating from Toronto Western hospital school of nursing, she joined the staff there. She later accepted a position with the Humber Memorial hospital, when it was founded about three years ago. She was a member of the United church.

Mrs. Parker was highly efficient in her profession. Her sincerity and sympathetic disposition endeared her to her hospital associates and patients. She was never known to let an opportunity pass where she could render extra kindness to the suffering. When those from her home community were in hospital, Mrs. Parker never failed to visit them. She was devoted to her children, Bruce, 16, Ronald, 9, and Carolyn, 8. They reside with their grandparents.

Funeral service was held on Tuesday evening at the W. J. Ward Funeral Home, Weston, conducted by Rev. Martin Jenkinson, King City, assisted by Rev. E. B. Ebby, minister of Central United church, Weston. A public service was held in King City United church, yesterday, conducted by Rev. Jenkinson. Interment was in King City cemetery.

Besides her parents and children, Mrs. Parker is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Donald MacMurchy (Mae), Hillsburg; Mrs. Norman MacMurchy and Miss Florence Folliott, Weston, and a brother, Harold Folliott, Weston.

William D. Flanagan

Requiem mass was held for William Delbert Flanagan, in his 77th year, at Sacred Heart Roman Catholic church, Mount St. Francis, fifth concession, King township, on Monday morning, Feb. 23, with interment in St. John's cemetery, Newmarket.

The funeral was very largely attended, as Mr. Flanagan was a life-long resident of King township. The pallbearers were his grandsons, William Crook, Robt. Crook of the R.C.A.P. at North Bay, Joseph Crook, Frank Adamson and grandsons by marriage, Harold Wood and Melbourne Newton. There were more than 100 mass cards and floral tributes were given by the family, King Ridge Women's Institute and the Rule Construction Company. Rev. Francis McGee and Rev. Father Quesselle officiated.

Mr. Flanagan passed away at his home, fifth concession, on
